

Song of Solomon

And They Sang A New Song Part 11

By Pastor Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

Song of Songs 4:11 Your lips, O my bride, drip as honey from the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Last time, we left off at chapter four, verse eleven. This is part eleven of They Sang A New Song. Your lips, O my bride. Remember, before this chapter she wasn't a bride; she was a sister. She was a black sister; that's a good way to put it. That's what she said, "Behold I'm black." She was a sister; she was not a bride. Many of you are natural born Lost Tribes of Israel; you are kin to the Messiah by blood, naturally. You were a sister or He wouldn't have called you. But He's trying to turn you from a sister to a wife; a bride, or a spouse. So by the time He gets her to this stage, He said, Your lips, O my bride, drip as honey from the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Yahweh, anoint this word tonight, I pray. Anoint your servant, that I could speak the words of life. Father, I never take this pulpit for granted. I remember as a little boy, Father, knowing I was called to this pulpit; but Father, it was called to me. I ask You to help me to honor it and help me to never forget the privilege I have to stand in this sacred desk. Never let me forget the sacrosanctity of speaking to Your people. They're not mine, they're Yours. You've given them to me to watch over on Your behalf. Help me to love them the way that You love them. Help me to rebuke them the way that You would rebuke them. Help me to guide them the way that You would guide them. Father, Honor our work tonight, I pray, in the Name of Yahshua.

There's something once you learn the new song, and you have matured in your walk with Yahweh; there will be signs that will let everybody know that you have matured; that you're no longer a sister, you're a bride, you're a member. There will be signs that will tell you that. There will be signs that will tell everyone around you who you are. One of the primordial signs of your maturity in Yahweh is not speaking the truth; but speaking the truth in love. We have a lot of truth tellers with no wisdom; a lot of truth coming out of their mouth, no wisdom. Truth is more dangerous than lies when truth is presented with no wisdom.

For example, let's say you knock on my door dressed as a Nazi during the Holocaust, and you say, "Are there any Jews in this house?" I say, No, and yet there are. Amen. Sometimes you've got to learn when not to speak the truth. The sign of maturity is when you've learned how to say the truth in such a way that it's like honey from the honeycomb coming out of your lips. He said, "My bride, your lips are dripping with honey from a honeycomb." I want to encourage members of First Harvest; we need to learn not to preach against things as much as we need to learn to preach for things.

I want to say this to you: We are not anti-Sunday. We are pro-Sabbath. Amen. You've got to learn to quit letting your mouth speak truth when you shouldn't have said anything at all. It's a fact. When they came to the herrin and asked her, Is there anybody in your house, what did that herrin say? NO. She lied, but yet she was speaking with honey. It's very important that you understand when you don't tell it all, that doesn't mean you have lied. Sometimes you are protecting innocent people. If you walked up to me right now Brother Shane Sewell and said, Is Caly cheating on me, and I know she is, I'm not going to tell you until you and Caly and I can sit down together. There's innocent people; there's family, there's children. You have to learn that sometimes, even though it's the truth, you've to learn to shut up.

You've got to learn not to give your truth on a bed of manure. The spirit behind what you say is more important than what you say. It's very important that you understand this. People that first come into this message, they run all over town throwing holy water on Sunday keeping churches. We know the truth. We know Sunday is the day of Catholics. We get it; we understand these things. But we also know that if we're ever going to reach those that might have a little hunger for truth, we must do it with honey from our lips. That comes with maturity. It's not what you say, it's how you say it. It's WISDOM. There comes a time in your maturing level when your mouth will tell your spirit.

Listen to me folks. If you're sitting at a table and one of your brothers pops a vitamin in his mouth, you don't have to jump over the table screaming, "It's a gelatin capsule!" Shut up! Just shut up. You've not been called to do that. Once you're done with dinner and you haven't made the man spit it out, you can pull him aside and say, “Brother, I wanted to just let you know because you probably don’t know this; but did you know that now they’re making that stuff with pork?” Now you’re using wisdom. You’re going to do more damage than good if you don’t.

For example, how many of you know that the modern version of Yahshua Jesus—the Catholic version, the Protestant version—is a little flimsy-wristed man who doesn’t care how you live as long as you claim His name? That’s what I mean; that’s the modern version. We know that version of Christ is the spirit of Antichrist. We know that. Now I’m going to be a pastor and tell you something. You cannot go up to people and tell them that Jesus Christ is the Antichrist. You can’t do it. Why? Because what’s dripping from your mouth must be spoken with honey from a honeycomb. And you say, “Can I talk to you? Do you know what they say about Jesus?” Yes. “Do you know they say you can do whatever you want and go to heaven? Sure Do. Did you know that the spirit behind that is the Antichrist spirit?” Now you’re saying it with honey from a honeycomb. Now people will listen to you. People will say, Okay.

I’m going to give you a perfect example. We know the name of the Son is Yahshua. We know that, right? You don’t have to scream out to anybody when they say Jesus. You don’t have to throw holy water on them; you don’t have to do any of that. If they say the J-man, it’s not bothering you at all. Why? Because you know the truth. You know the truth, so you don’t have to throw your holy water on them. No. You can just say, “I heard you talking about Jesus. Do you know what I just found out? His mother called Him Yahshua.” Now, what does that person do? She did? And you say, “and not just her, but the angel; the angel named Him Yahshua.” Now they can’t argue with you. Now you’ve got honey dripping from your lips. What you say is true, but full of wisdom, full of love. Amen.

You can tell the truth, but you have to PRESENT truth; you can’t just throw truth; you have to present it. Let me ask you a question. How many of you love a good filet mignon or a good rib eye? I do. That ribeye is full of protein, especially if it comes from Melaleuca with no hormones; none of that. I love a good ribeye, but if I go and get a plate and line it with rat pellets, and put a little something on there, and I bring you something that’s good, what will you say? No. But the steak is good. It’s how you presented a good thing.

I'll give you an example. My grandmother did not have the revelation of the Sabbath Day, but what she thought was holy, she kept until she died. Do you know what she told me and my wife, sitting in our vehicle in the back seat after years of hearing me and knowing what I believe, and never giving an inch? Sitting in my car right before she died, she said these words, "You know, I've been thinking about that Sabbath Day. There just wouldn't be anything wrong with keeping that as the Sabbath Day, at all." Do you know why? I never condemned her. I never told her she's wrong. I just said that I was right. HalleluYah.

I know you're not shouting tonight, but I'm just trying to train you on how to present our message to the world. We are not here to condemn our brothers and sisters. We're here to draw them to more understanding, more truth, more revelation. Ladies and gentlemen, you don't just need your steak well done, you need your plate well done. As you learn the new song, your lips will DRIP WITH HONEY! You know what honey represents, don't you? Sweetness. I can tell what level you're on by how you talk to your brothers and sisters at this church. Some of you think I don't hear you, when you think that I'm not listening. Soon as you think I'm gone, you go back to being your little smart aleck self to people. Your lips aren't dripping with honey.

I'm trying to get you ready for this new song. Your lips have got to be dripping with sweetness. What's dripping from your lips? If you're going to be this bride, you have to get to a point where all that drips from those lips is honey. It has to be honey. Why? Because that honey is the sweetness that awakens your taste buds. Now let me make it plain for you. If you want to get your taste buds awake, put a little honey in your mouth. Listen to me carefully. If you want people to desire the message you believe, put a little honey in your mouth. Just put a little honey in your mouth. Just a little honey.

When you know they go to church on Sunday, it's not your job to tell them they're going to hell. They're not. It's not your job. It's your job to say, "I found out that the seventh day is the Sabbath Day." They're like, Yeah, Sunday. "Look at your calendar, darling." Oh my gosh. Now you've whet somebody's appetite. Now when they go to bed, they're going to think of that conversation. Sweetness awakens your APPETITE. When you're sweet to people about this message, you awaken their appetite for more. I want to tell First Harvest something. We aren't against anybody. If you're doing all you know to do, we're your brothers; we're your sisters. But, we would like for you to try a little filet mignon now. We'd like for you to try another level of understanding. We don't want to put you down. We want to bring you UP, with a little honey on our lips. I've had people get mad at me because I don't straighten people out more than I do if they say the wrong name, or this or that. But I have come to find out, if you will just listen to my teaching, it will whet your appetite for more and More and MORE.

I'll give you an example. Not one of you did I ever try to convince of this message. I just wanted you to think about it. I never, and I never will. You know how nearly every one of you is sitting here today? I had a little honey on my lips, and I'll tell you what happened. You were watching Toto and Toto was talking about Trump, and all of a sudden while Toto's talking, he throws that name Yahweh out there, and then goes right back to Trump. And then I'd say, "We'd love to have you join us for our Sabbath service." I never said, "Now all you Sunday folks watching this program, you need to get right with God." I never did that. I said, "Now we're having a Sabbath service." I just put a little honey on my lips and made them say, I'm going to his channel and see what he's talking about. That's what they did; that's what you did, what most everybody did. They said, "Let's go looking for more." A little honey makes your appetite come awake.

Amen. It whets your appetite. It's HOW you say it. All the people you will see at our Super Sabbaths and the Feasts, they all came here from a drop of honey. Sister Lydia; a drop of honey. Just a little mention here of Yahshua and somebody is watching who will say, Yah who? They start googling and then they're like, Ohhhh. I didn't know this. You're waking up that appetite. Yahweh has not called you to convert people. He's called you to drop honeycombs. Drop honey everywhere you go. When you're in town and somebody says, Well, we're going to be at church Sunday, it's not your job to say, "Did you know that Constantine in 345 A.D., did you know what he did?" They are already looking for a way out of your presence. And then you're going to wonder ten years down the road after walking in truth, why you don't have one convert; nobody listens to you.

That's because of your MOUTH. So if somebody says, We're going to church Sunday, say, "That's a wonderful thing. Now we're going to church on the Sabbath." They're like, The what? "The seventh day of the week we assemble; on the seventh day." And they say, Isn't that what Sunday is? "No, just look at your calendar." Then just go about your business. Guess what they're going to do?

Look at their calendar. And they're going to find out you were right. You just whet their appetite. I'm calling everyone in this ministry to never let the spirit of a Pharisee jump on you, ever.

In nine years, no one has ever heard me preach even one time on what we cannot do on the Sabbath Day. Brother Vaughn, why don't you tell us what we can and can't do? It's not my Sabbath. You've got a Bible; work it out. It's not my job to tell you what we can and cannot do on the Sabbath Day. The only thing I can tell you is what Torah says. Torah says two things. Now Nehemiah added a bunch of things, but Torah said, a holy convocation and no servile work. The word servile means employment; none of your customary work you do to make a living. That's all we preach here. I can't tell you what you can do or can't do. If I do, I'm a Pharisee, adding to the Word. Somebody said, Well now; Nehemiah said not to sell. Nehemiah's not Torah. And they didn't even make that commandment for everybody.

Do you know why Nehemiah said that? Because Israel broke the Sabbath. That's why they went to Babylon, and he was so determined that they would never break the Sabbath again, that he created a list of rules for those people in his group. He was their pastor and he gave them the church rules. I'm fine with that, but that's not Torah. I say, Find the SPIRIT of the Sabbath, which is rest, and if spending the day in your bed with your wife is rest, then rest that way. If walking through the park is rest, rest that way. Whatever you have to do, forget the details and focus on the Spirit of the Sabbath. It is a delight. It is not a burden. That's why people don't keep the Sabbath. We have turned it into, Oh! Did you just pick up that watermelon! You better get right with God! That's nowhere in the Bible.

Do you know why people think Yahshua replaced the Law? Because they don't understand that what He replaced was not the Law; it was the Talmud. But the Talmud was the added laws to the Torah. For example, you've got to wash your hands before you eat. Guess what? That's a good idea, but it's not a required idea. Whenever you are studying the law, the Greek word is nomos. The word ho is the word for his. When you see ho nomos, that's Yahweh's law. When you see nomos, that's the Talmudic law. When it comes to women speaking to the congregation and in the church, when it says for women to keep silent, if you go read that again, Paul says, and so sayeth the law. If you look at that law, it's nomos without the ho. In other words, it was against Talmudic law for the women to speak in the church. It was nowhere in Torah. That was added to keep the women silent in the church.

You know what I laugh about so much? Everybody says women need to keep silent. I have been in church since I was born. To this day, I have never been in a church where the women were silent. Ever. EVER. I've been in Baptist, Catholic; I've been in everything. If they're singing in the choir that isn't silent. Amen. Now, they cannot have authority over a man, but there's nothing in Torah against a woman speaking in the congregation.

Why am I teaching this? I'm trying to help you not to become what nobody likes. Amen. Be a honeycomb. If somebody messes up on this walk, they have one pastor and it isn't you. Praise Yahweh! If you see your brother eating a pork chop, leave him alone. He's got one pastor and it isn't you. Amen. Because if you will learn to sweep around your own doorstep, you won't have time to sweep around mine. Amen. And once you fall in love with Yahweh, you aren't going to eat a porkchop anyway. Why? Because you want to please Him. You want to do everything you can to please Him.

Honey is a predigested food. It means that the bee eats the nectar, digests it, and literally spits it back out as honey. So it's predigested, so you're really eating throw up. Well, glory. Now, the principle remains the same. Here's the principle: before you can give honey to others, you've got to digest the nectar yourself. You've got to eat this message, you've got to digest it. I've told you this for years and I can't get it through some people's heads. This is not a Seventh Day Adventist Church. Our message is not the Sabbath Day. Our message is not clean and unclean foods. Our message is not what happens when we die. All of those things are add-ons to the message. The message is The Coming Kingdom of God to Planet Earth. Get the message Right! DIGEST the message, and what you'll spit back out will be honey.

When you digest this message, if you've really digested it, what is going to come out of your mouth is going to be honey from the comb. Brother Vaughn, I'm going to tell them the truth. Well, that's good. Serve your steak on a clean plate, and you'll stir up their appetite for more. Folks, you cannot go up to a Catholic and tell them that they are part of Babylon. First of all, they don't even know where Babylon is. You can't do it. But if the Holy Spirit is drawing them, there's going to be a conversation that will begin. What you can show them is what Jerusalem looks like. And the Lord will turn you into a honey-maker; honey from the comb. Praise the Lord. Did you know that honey can go sour or sweet? It depends on how you protect the honey. C'mon now; I'm trying to get somewhere tonight. If that bee does not spit that honey back into the comb, if it falls on the ground, it will turn sour. Only in the comb does it turn sweet.

Listen brothers and sisters, if you have a Pharisaical spirit and you hear this message, you will turn into the most dangerous person in the community. You will, because your spirit was already bad. Your ground was already bad, so when you heard that you were better than all the other Christians, it went to your head. There is no church that I walk into that I think I am better than anyone there. None. Matter of fact, I feel least among them, anywhere I go. But I know the message I've been given, and that we have been given, and I am responsible to present that message on a palate.

If you've watched our message on the Now Network, you'll see how much honey we're using in the message. Amen? It's not like our Saturday morning Bible study. Why? Because Saturday morning Bible study is only believers; people that believe just like us so I can go straight after the Pope, all day long. It's called a believer's convention because we're all believers. But on my television program, you'd think I was the sweetest thing in the world. My wife and I are just throwing a little honey out there about the Kingdom of God; honey from the comb. We're just throwing it out there, and do you know what's going to happen? Somebody's going to hear it and go to fhtv.tv. Somebody is going to go and find this message because we stirred up an appetite.

STIR UP an appetite, children. We love ALL of our brothers and sisters. We are not better than anyone! We're wretched sinners saved by grace. Now we're Israelites by His choice! How blessed we are to know WHO we are! You must have anointed lips. Something else is under her tongue: milk. Milk gives life, not death. Folks, we have a precious message. We don't send anybody to hell. That isn't us. We are trying to get people into the 100-fold believers that will have a future in the Kingdom of Yahweh.

The last thing He said in verse eleven was, the fragrance of your garment is like the fragrance of Lebanon. Lebanon means purification and cleansing. Your lips are honey, there's milk in your mouth, and you smell like purity. You wanted to learn the new song didn't you? Do you know that everyone that learns the new song in the book of Revelation will also be given a new robe? This woman is wearing the new robe. It smells like Lebanon; purity and cleanliness. The Father wants to smell your separation. When you are mature in Him, you are separated and you get a new garment.

Song of Songs 4:12 A locked garden is my sister, my bride—a locked spring, a sealed fountain.

Up until now, she has been under the tutorship of the Roe, the King and the Shepherd. But now, she knows Him as the Husband. When I started this series I told you that I was going to teach you about Yahshua in four dimensions: the King of Humility, the Roe, the Shepherd, and the Husband-Man. Many of you don't understand when the Bible calls you in one verse, the Sons of God, and in another verse, the bride. How does that even make sense? How can you be the sons and the wife and all that?

This woman in Song of Solomon is showing you that it is your levels in the covenant relationship that determine what you're called. This lady was called a sister in the beginning, and a wife at the end. So you can be a son over here, and a wife over here, because here as a son you started with obedience, but as a bride, you came into relationship. It's just different levels of that covenant. Don't let the scriptures confuse you. This lady here has now come to know Him not as the Roe anymore, not as her King, but now as her husband. Now she's ready—after four chapters of going back and forth—for Him to break her virginity, her seal, her garden for it to spring forth.

She is now ready for Him to break her virgin seal. Now I'm about to show you if you're learning a new song, where you've got to come to. Listen to me carefully. Until your garden has been penetrated by the Spirit of Yahweh, you don't know Him as your husband. She's now ready for Him to break her virginity on her heart. I've taught you for years what the heart is. It's the MIND. It's your thinking. I've come to tell you, the last step in your maturity with Yahweh will be the penetration of your mind by the Word of Yahweh. Your mind is the last thing you give up. You give up your heart or your emotions easily. You give up your emotions when the preacher is preaching and there is an altar call, and you go kneel at the Cross. You allowed Him into your emotions. You allowed Him into your life; your heart, so to speak. But until the virgin seal on your hymen or your mind is broken, you're not a wife; you're a sister. The last thing you'll give up to Yahweh is your WAY of THINKING.

You'll give Him your heart easily, but the LAST thing a person ever gives away is their way of thinking. The last thing you'll ever give up is these words: That's not how I believe it; that's not how I see it. I know. You've still got the hymen over your mind. What is the hymen? That flesh veil that the male breaks upon the woman; that veil that separates you from total penetration of the Word of Yahweh. Until you break it, you're a garden sealed up! Over your mind is the mark of the BEAST. There's not a person in this ministry that's not taken the mark of the beast during your life. It's a seal on you; 666, the number of flesh. What is the virgin seal on a woman? A piece of flesh. The mark of the beast is on your mind. The mark of the beast says, I'm Baptist, I'm Catholic, I'm Pentecostal, I'm Presbyterian. I know what my mama taught me! That's because you're still a sister.

You've grown near unto Him, but you've not broken the veil. You are His sister; you're saved, HalleluYah. You're part of the family, but you'll never be allowed into Solomon's bed as long as you're unwilling to let Him break the flesh over your mind. Your MIND is the enemy of Yahweh. The Bible said they cannot submit to the Law of Yahweh in their mind. Your mind is your heart. When the Bible speaks of the heart, it is what you're thinking. I want to tell every one of you something. Until He penetrates you, you'll think, I'm my own man. Nobody tells me what to do. There's no one better than me.

Here's how you'll think: I'll go into that church and I'm not dancing, and I'll worship the way I choose. You little virgin, unflowered, you aren't anything but a sister. You've not allowed those scriptures to enter your mind. I'll prove it to you. I can show people in the scriptures all day long, what happens to the dead. I can show them from Genesis to Revelation. I can say, "If you're already in heaven, then what happened to the resurrection?" I can make it so plain that they literally get mad at me while they say these words: I don't care what it says; that's not what it means. They get angry.

They get angry because they've still got their legs—their minds—SHUT. You're coming against their wall. There's got to come a day when the flesh is surrendered. One reason I fall out in the Spirit when the Spirit moves on me, is because it reminds me to just lay on down and RECEIVE what Yahweh is doing in my mind and in my life. You must give it up!! But I'll lose my friends. CHOOSE: Sister or Wife. Her virgin heart is ready for Him to break her seal of her garden. Her fountain will gush forth because the river of Yahweh is in all of us, and the moment the Word of Yahweh begins to penetrate our minds, a fountain of LIVING WATER comes out of our belly; out of our innermost being. There is a fountain inside of you that will come forth when the Word of Yahweh changes your thinking!

How many of you remember when you finally surrendered that Sunday wasn't the Sabbath Day? It was like that Word penetrated right on through. What about when you found out there is only One God, no Trinity? Whoah! A little deeper now. It's coming in; it's taking OVER you. It's turning you into Mistress Yahshua at the consummation. The minute you become One Flesh, One Spirit, One Mind; if that same Spirit that was in Christ, also dwells in you. She's a locked garden, a locked spring, a sealed fountain.

Remember when we started this book, He stood outside of her wall. Do you remember that religious wall she had? He was a Roe. And then, do you remember the little foxes came in and spoiled her vine? Those little foxes were her other loves, her other commitments. I would be there on Sabbath but my kids have football that night. Little foxes. I would be there for the Holy Days but my wife has crocheting lessons. Remember, the little foxes. Yes, I'm preaching to all of you right now. The little foxes, because the walls of religion had not allowed her mind to say, "By all means, I must keep this Feast." Paul said, "By all means—by any means necessary—I must keep the Feasts." Why? His mind had been penetrated by the Word of Yahweh.

Now, when we come to verse twelve, we find that she's no longer behind her religious wall, but she's in an closed garden. It says it's a garden sealed up. She's behind a double wall; a double lock. There's no room for anyone else behind this wall of her virgin heart. She's enclosed. The word enclosed in Hebrew means nawal. It means to fasten with a bar like sandals, or to bolt. It has two meanings. There's two walls here; the wall, and then the lock. Remember, she was behind a religious wall, but now that she's given up, the Father is taking her behind another wall. She's now in another place of His Spirit. This wall that she's in, is shut up. She's in a paradise, separated from earthly things. She is in a garden, enclosed. That's exactly what I thought when I pulled up to that 30 acres of land: It's a garden, enclosed. Nobody even knows we're back there. It's a garden, enclosed. I'm telling you, whenever you let the Word take over your life, all of a sudden, you'll be moved into a safe place like you've never known before. You will find a place behind the wall, that is paradise on earth. It is a safe place for you and the Word of Yahweh.

Her mind is now His paradise. He breaks her seal and visits the garden in the cool of the day, everyday now. What did it say in verse twelve? She's a garden, enclosed. I've hidden her away from the world. I've taken her from her mama's house, and I've moved her into a private place; a place of intimacy for her protection. It's her safe place because behind this wall. She does not walk around oblivious to what's going on in the world, but she walks around unfazed about what's going on in the world. She's not dumb. She knows all the things beyond that wall, but she spends not a millisecond worrying about it. She's a garden, enclosed. There's a bolt on the door. She has double protection. That's right. The wall is TRUTH. The bolt is SPIRIT. It's a double wall, and she is now protected. I want you to hear me and hear me well. When you finally surrender to the plain Word of Yahweh, all of a sudden, you're in the world, but you're really not OF the world! You've become a garden, enclosed.

When I see people so scared of what might happen in Russia or China, I know it could get bad—Brother Vaughn, what if we all go broke—but what you don't understand is I'm in a garden, enclosed. I'm on another plane. I'm in a whole other system. I'm in a whole other place. I don't know anything but the WORD! Now that He's penetrated her mind, she's protected by what penetrated her: the Word of Yahweh. Brother Vaughn, the world's getting bad. Is it? Okay. I live in another world. I live in a garden, enclosed. Brother Vaughn, who do you think the Antichrist is going to be? I don't know, but I'll tell you what I do know. I'm not much worried about it because I know he can't get to me. I'm in a garden, enclosed.

When you come into this garden, you have no fear! You're protected behind the wall. She can walk through Walmart and still be bolted in to a garden, enclosed. She can walk through town hearing all of the noise, but she's a garden, enclosed. HalleluYah! Yahweh has protected her from the world. As you learn the new song, you'll learn to be a garden, enclosed. Yahweh has always protected those things that are precious to Him. Do you remember when Adam and Eve failed to keep the Garden? He still sent an angel to protect what's precious to Him. He loves His gardens enclosed, and when they failed, He sent an angel to stand guard. I've come to tell you that Yahweh PROTECTS what's precious to Him. I didn't say He protects what's perfect. I said He protects what's PRECIOUS to Him; what the SEGULAH is! He protects the Segulah. He protects us! You are protected.

Why did Yahweh put an angel in the Garden of Eden? To protect the Tree of Life. What does that mean? To make sure that carnal minds didn't get a hold of the Word. To make sure carnal minds didn't get a hold of this message. The Tree of Life is the message. Do you really think that was a literal tree in the Garden? Do you think that was really a snake? C'mon folks! Do we really believe in talking snakes? The Bible never said he was a snake; He said he was an old serpent. You'll find him in Revelation, chapter twelve: that old serpent, the devil. That was Satan in the Garden with the bride! And when Yahweh saw they wouldn't protect truth; when He saw they would choose religious apples instead of the Tree of Life; when He saw they wouldn't protect the message, He moved them, and protected TRUTH with an angel.

Do you know why He protected that tree? Because during the Millennial Reign, that tree will pop back up. Go read Revelation: And in the midst of the city stood the Tree of Life. In the midst of Israel will stand the message, and we will eat from that message, all manner of fruit; the way we're eating it right now. There weren't two trees in the Garden! There were two choices in the Garden. That same snake showed up on the Mount of Temptation. Adam showed up, the snake showed up, and Eve showed up. Brother Vaughn, what do you mean, Eve was there? It's very simple. You were in HIM. The Bible said that when He died, they pierced His side and we flowed out—blood and water. We were there in the second Garden with the second Adam. Are you listening?! The same snake showed up and gave the same two choices: Truth or Lies. I know why Yahweh protected some people from getting a hold of this Word: Carnal Minds.

If you open up this book without the Holy Ghost, you can do some damage. It's a fact: He built a double wall around what's precious to Him. He protects holy things. I'll show you that double wall, children of Israel: Tabernacle; just old badger skins. Just an old tabernacle that didn't look like much, and nobody knew that behind a double wall, an outer court and an inner court wall, there was a precious thing worth more than money, hidden behind a double wall. He ALWAYS double walls what's precious to Him. And I might as well bring you on over now to whenever He gave them Jerusalem. What's the first thing He said?

Build A Wall. And all through the scriptures you read about the walls of Jerusalem. I want you to hear me tonight. Yahweh wants to double wall you. He wants to take you out and bring you in. He wants to put you where no fear can penetrate your mind, because He's already penetrated your mind.

Do you know that you can get so much faith in the Word of Yahweh, when your lights get turned off, they aren't even off; they're just waiting to get turned back on? You're protected from fear and worry, and doubt. Why? Because you've been through all that. When the Roe was seducing you, you went through all that, but you finally overcame and you said these words: If Your Word says it; that settles it. Whether I believe it or not, that settles it. I'm protected behind the wall of the Word.

I've come to tell you that you're protected. Build that wall. Yahweh loves walls. It demonstrates His sovereignty over His people. I'll take you now quickly, to where the City of Yahweh—The New Jerusalem—will have a wall all the way around it. Yahweh loves walls. Why do you think He told Donald Trump to build that wall? Protect what's precious to Me; America is precious. That's why he'll be back in 2024: we've got to build that WALL! That poor man doesn't even know what he's saying. He's just a TRUMPET. He doesn't even know why he wants to build a wall. But Yahweh said, "I need to find somebody that's got enough money that they don't care about being hurt by anybody, who will build Me a wall around what's precious to Me: America! BUILD IT! I need somebody that won't back down." Build the wall. Yahweh loves walls. It separates what's His and what's not His.

Unless you have Truth, you'll join yourself to what you're going through in your life. I want you to listen. Behind this wall, what you're going through doesn't exist behind the wall. Why? Because there was a scripture that penetrated your virgin mind and it said, Low, I am with you always. I won't put more on you than you can bear. There's something that comes in your mind that says you have an expected end. There's another scripture that says, before you were born in your mother's womb, I knew you. Penetrate that mind! And now, when you see your life, it's outside the wall. It doesn't affect you inside the wall. Your life just sort of floats by, and runs into the wall and all your troubles go around the wall. Outside the wall you're broke, but inside the wall you're a King's kid. HalleluYah. You don't have any fear, no complaints, no doubts, because you're double protected by Spirit and Truth.

That's why I get so discouraged with our modern day patriot movement. It seems like they're all scared to death about everything. Everyday I get a new video clip about King Charles being the Antichrist. Do you know how long they've been naming the Antichrist? When I was a child it was Ronald Wilson Reagan: 666. He has six letters in each of his three names. Remember? But do you know, I couldn't care less because I'm behind a wall? Do you know that I could care less about one thing or the other? I am protected. I am the segulah. I'm the treasure, and where I am is where He is. The only way I can fail is if He can fail. I have no worries!

I wish all the people worried about J.F.K Jr. coming back were that worried about Yahshua coming back. I could care less if Dale Earnhardt ever returns. I am looking for the King of Kings. I'm behind a wall. These patriots are as carnal as the liberals. That's why I don't go to the meetings. I just don't like it. They aren't preaching Hope, they're selling dope. I'm serious. Covid didn't affect me; I was behind a wall. Do you understand? You've got to get to the point that you're so focused on the Coming Kingdom of Yahweh, that the present kingdom never affects you in any way, shape, or form. GET BEHIND THE WALL!

That's why I preach so hard against climate change activism. I don't care if the oceans all melt today. I'm behind a wall. It's a bunch of demons that teach climate change. If the God you serve created a world that He can't keep, you serve the wrong God. Don't talk to me about climate change. Give me my car, fill it up with gas, and then drill baby drill. I'm not worried about any of it. I'm behind a wall. It's demons that teach climate change. They worship their own self. I played a video clip on my show in the halls of Congress of my favorite senator, John F. Kennedy. I love that man. I wish he'd run for president after Trump. Listen, he asked the director of the whatever-whatever and said, "You want fifty trillion dollars for climate change." Yes sir. He said, "All right. could you tell me in the next ten years how much you're going to lower carbon emissions?" Well, sir, we don't know; we have no idea. He said, "But you want fifty trillion dollars for something that you have no idea about?"

Why don't you save the fifty trillion, get behind a wall, and wait for the coming of the Lord, and you don't have to worry about none of it. Where is your faith? Where is your faith!?! Yahweh's in control! Fill my car up with gas. I don't even like doomsday preaching. You might go through doomsday, but I'm locked in. I'm a garden, enclosed. Don't worry; be happy now. Don't worry; your face will frown.

Get behind a wall and believe Yahweh. Trust in Yahweh. Leave your fears outside the wall, and sit there with the lover of your soul—the Word—and say, “They just said I was no good, what do you say?” I say you’re the apple of My eye. Thank you; I’m fine. I’m behind a wall; you can’t bother me. I’m behind a wall.

I’m ready to end, and I want to say this. We cannot forget to protect what the Father has given us. Anytime you have something precious, you’re going to always have curious visitors that want to come look at it. They’ll move in among you. Ladies and gentlemen, First Harvest Ministries has a gift. It’s a revelation that I don’t hear anywhere. I don’t hear the totality of this revelation that we have. We have something precious. Anytime you get something precious, you’re going to have people move in, come in looking for a circus, or try to create a circus. It’s up to you and me to protect the treasure of end time truth with a double wall.

The Father has given this ministry precious things, precious people, and we must hide it. We must only show it to those who long for it, not for those that are curious about it. They’ll come on the land, looking around. They’re visiting a circus. If you’re not careful, you will allow illegal immigration in your private relationship with Yahweh. Yahweh spoke to me today and said, “Don’t allow illegal immigrants to come into this ministry. They must come in through the Door of Obedience; the narrow way, the narrow path. They must come in through the path of love for one another. It’s our job to watch the wall; to protect it. Let’s build that wall. Let’s stand behind that wall, and we’ll welcome anybody that comes in the door; but you can’t climb over, you can’t crawl under, you must come in at the door.
