

Song of Solomon

And They Sang a New Song (part 3)

To Kill a Mockingbird

By Pastor Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

Iyyob 39:19 BOY Did you give strength to the horse? Have you clothed his neck with a flowing mane?

And for more clarity...

Job 39:19 KJV Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

Remember now, that this is for those who have the spirit of the horse. What did the bridegroom—the King of Humility—tell you? “I have compared you and I have found out that you’ve got the heart of a horse.” We didn’t know what that meant until we found an interpretation in the book of Job, as to how Yahweh sees the horse. We found out in verse 19 that the horse has strength. Then we found out that his neck is clothed with thunder. We found out that that is the Two Witnesses—Spirit and Truth—coming together.

And then we found out that you cannot make the horse like the grasshopper. What does that mean? The grasshopper is always jumping, just afraid of its own little shadow. It jumps at the slightest trouble in life. When you get the spirit of the end time bride on you, that grasshopper spirit goes away. You quit jumping when you hear a little tremble. You quit jumping when you feel like pressure is caving in on you. You lose that jump spirit and you get that pawing spirit. You get that standing still spirit until you watch Yahweh move. People that jump too quickly, miss out too quickly. Stand still and quit gathering moss. Just stand still. Don’t be a rolling stone, jumping. Find a standing place and say, “Though He slay me, I’m going to die right where I’m standing.”

Then we found out in verse 20, that the glory of his nostrils is terrible, and what comes out of him makes the enemy very afraid. In verse 21 we found out that he paws in the valley; he doesn't cry in the valley. In the valley He restores his soul. He starts digging to find out what Yahweh wants to teach him in that valley. Some of you need to start pawing. If Yahweh put you in a valley, find out why. Stay there and dig into His Word, dig into His mind, and quit running away from His discipline. Quit running away from the tests and the trials of your faith which are to try you, that you might come forth as pure gold! Don't jump out; jump in, and then stand when you get in there. The Bible doesn't say that you've got to be moving forward.

Someone said to me, "Brother Vaughn, I feel like I'm stuck." That's a good place to be! But I want to make some progress! I could care less if you ever make progress. Having done all to stand, just STAND. If you can't go forward, for God's sake, don't go back. Stand right where you are and Yahweh will move right where you are. Don't ever go back. No backsliding in us! Last time we finished at verse 21 about pawing, so we'll pick up there right now in Job.

Iyyob 39:21 He violently paws the air and gloats in his strength; he rushes into the clash of arms.

He goes on to meet the armed men. He's not a grasshopper. He goes to meet whatever trouble has come his way. Satan, do you want to send your army after me? I'm not a grasshopper. I used to be, but I'm not a grasshopper anymore. I'm not running; I'm not going anywhere, so if you plan to send the armed men after me, I'm going to come right out there and meet you all in the pea patch. I said, "In the lentil patch, I will stand there. I'm not moving, buddy. You might have to move, but I am holding my position!"

If you're now going to sing a new song—experience Yahweh in a new way—you have to have this spirit of a horse. You have to have this within you if you're going to make it, and I'm going to talk to you about this because Yahweh has given me a job to do; that I do not even want to do.

Right when I determine that I'm going to put together a good, motivational sermon; that I'm going to put together something that people will get in the chat group and say, "OohWhee! He preached tonight and he was on fire"—well it's going to be you on fire instead. I was sitting in my office minding my business and the Lord starts giving me a message, but you can take good cheer tonight; it's not for you. It's for those around the world who will watch this sermon on fhtv.tv, because I've been given the duty to sound an alarm in Israel over something that's going on right now in the church world. It's not my desire to do so, but alas, here am I. "If you need a broken vessel to use, here I am." Don't ever say that unless you mean it.

HalleluYah!

Immaturity runs from the battle. Now you don't have to go and create a war with the devil. We're not supposed to do that. You don't have to start a war with the devil because if you'll stand still long enough, he'll start one with you. You don't have to go casting the devil out of the high places because he is coming out anyway to where you are in the low places. The spirit of the horse is one that says, "I'm not afraid of the armed men."

I don't know what you're going through in your life right now, but there will come a moment in your life where you will look for and you will see an army of armed men—trouble—that's coming your way. Maybe it's people running you down. Maybe it's the loss of a job. Maybe it's the loss of a home. Maybe it's the loss of your solidarity; your comfort zone. Others have no idea that you're facing an army, but for those that are going to sing this new song, they must be proven to find out if they are worthy of the new song. Remember, the new song is an Overcomer's song.

Every one of you in our local church body has said that you want to sing the new song, and I told you that you had to learn it first. Every one of you wants to sing this overcomer's song, until there is something to overcome. Amen. I want to sing this song! I want you to hear me now: Some of you are learning one of the verses right now. You're going through hell on earth. Everywhere you turn, there's armed men. It feels like an army against you, but you don't understand until you face that moment and somewhere deep inside of you—the moment one of the family members brings you even more trouble—and all of a sudden there is a grunt that comes out of you: “Yahweh is good!” Yes, He is. You’re starting to learn verse one; you’re starting to learn this new song!

The old song is this: Here comes the armed men and the horse sees them coming, and in the old song, you would sing a Hank Williams song. “I don’t know how I’m going to make it this time.” and “He stopped loving her today.” See, you get in the spirit of that moment. That’s the old song. Here’s the old song: When those armed men start coming your way, you say, “Why did Yahweh do this to me? I can’t take it anymore. I don’t know what I’m going to do.” Everybody can sing that song, darling. Don’t you know that they know every verse and every melody to the song of doubt, and the song of confusion, and the song of giving up, and the song of not knowing what to do? Everybody can sing that song with you. Everybody knows every verse to I don’t know how I’m going to make it. Everybody knows every verse to the song, “Why me, Lord; What have I ever done?” We know those songs, because we can all go there. But there’s one song that very few men can sing. Job sang that song. He said, “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.” I know the new song of the Overcomer! Put me in the choir!”

When you learn this new song, you start positioning yourself in the book of Revelation as one of those that are singing a song that no man can sing. You can’t be a man and sing this song. Remember I taught you about Sagittarius; that half horse, half man? Remember, you have to come out of Sagittarius—that half animal that you were born as—until you come into something beyond that—you come into that place where Yahweh is good all the time. That IS the new song of the Lord! You must learn to sing it.

When you see those armed men coming, the new song goes sort of like this: Look Pastor, they’re talking about you over there in that group, and that group is running you down over there now. Now you’ve got four or five pages opened up. Everybody is talking about you. You’ve got armed men around you everywhere! I know, but here’s my song: Though a thousand come up on my right side, ten thousand on my left side, in this will I be confident: that the Lord is My Light and My Salvation! Whom shall I fear? Of whom shall I be afraid? That's the new song!

Every man can't sing it. But if you want to learn it, I promise you the Lord will teach it to you. I promise you that right when we pull into town, He'll let the house fall right down under you, and that way the enemy can come in your MIND and say, "Well, did the Lord tell us to do it? Did the Lord say to do it?" It's at that moment where if you don't know the voice of Yahweh, you will surrender to the voice of the enemy. You better learn the NEW SONG of an Overcomer! HalleluYah, HalleluYah, HalleluYAH!

The Bible said that he goes out to MEET the army! The horse doesn't start trying to run to the barn. No, he smells the battle. I said, "He smells the battle!" He says, "I smell another God miracle opportunity! I smell another opportunity to ride all over him! I smell another testimony coming!" Glory to Yahweh! He says he goes out to meet him. I don't know about you, but it takes more than a Facebook page to shut me down. It takes more than a lie to shut me down, because there is no grasshopper in me at all. I've heard Yahweh say, "Do what I told you to do, and no matter what anybody does, I'll be your rear guard, I'll be your right guard, I'll be your left guard. I'll stand in front of you, I'll put a hedge all around you no matter what!"

About five years ago, my wife and I were part-owners of a very successful car lot in Ocean Springs. It had been there for decades. That was our income for a long time. One day we came home from a cruise, and that was the cruise when I left my luggage behind and went on the cruise with absolutely nothing. I made sure everybody's luggage got loaded but when we got on the ship and I heard the horn as it took off, I started to look for my luggage and there was none. Somehow, I had a pair of flip flops and somehow I had a suit. I think I brought my suit bag but not my luggage bag. So I only had a gorgeous suit with flip flops. I went to dinner every night with my suit and flip flops. Honey, I'll make a way! We were on cloud nine when we got back from that cruise, and my business partner came in and said that the business was shutting down. That was my income—good income.

I looked at my wife that day and I didn't know what we were going to do, because you don't just go find a job like I had. I was very successful. My car commercials were known by everybody in this town. They knew me all over town; my billboards and everything, so when that business shut down, all my income was gone in a day. It was at that moment when I didn't know what I was going to do, and my little wife, being the wondrous daughter of Sister Kendrick that she was, went into her closet and pulled out all this money. HalleluYah! I was worried to death about money at this point, but she had been saving money that I didn't know about: hiding it, putting it away for a rainy day that I never planned for. It wasn't a lot of money, but when you have nothing it's a lot of money at that point.

The reason I'm telling you about this is because it was on that day that I met an army coming to tell me that I wasn't going to be able to provide for my family, and great fear came over me that day. But I learned to sing the Overcomers' song and I went out and faced that army, and I did it with five smooth stones. I didn't have a plan. You don't need a plan; you need FAITH. If you've got faith, Yahweh will work it out. I promise you that Yahweh will work it out. You've got to stand in faith and believe that the God that you serve is well able! And if you have this horse spirit, you'll just go right out and meet that army. You'll say, "I don't want a war with you, but I'm not scared of you."

Iyyob 39:22 He mocks at fear, and is not frightened; nor does he shy away from the sword.

I love this verse. He mocks fear. He mocks it. If you have fear tonight, you haven't learned the Overcomers' song. Are you afraid tonight? Get it out of your heart. There's nothing to be afraid of. Listen to me, children. There's nothing to be afraid of! Not when you're a horse. Brother Vaughn, I don't know how I'm going to make it. You don't need to know how you're going to make it. You just need to know that Yahweh is able. That's all you need to know. You've just got to know. You've just got to know that this time next year, you'll rewatch this sermon and remember where you were sitting, and you'll say, "You know what, he was right; I made it!" Mock FEAR! These horses mock fear! They mock it. They make fun of what makes fun of them. You have to get to the point in your walk with Yahweh that you make fun of what's making fun of you. You will not be bullied. You are not a victim. You're the BRIDE of Yahshua Hamashiach! You have NOTHING to fear!

Read this verse again. He is NOT frightened, and he does not turn back from the sword. Those horses run into war with swords all around them. They know this: If they fall in the battle, they'll win the Crown. They already know that no matter what happens, they are not going to lose even if they lose. I came to tell you tonight that you need a HORSE SPIRIT! They don't start a war, but if you start one, they'll run right in the middle of it, because they have no fear.

Brother Vaughn, they said they were going to destroy me. Then they already would have. They said they were going to bring me down! You don't understand. You don't say it if you're going to do it. I learned years ago, when those people try to bring you fear, mock it! Do you know how you mock it? By not responding to it. Take your family and say, "There's no fear in this family; let's go ride the waves. Let's go to the beach and watch Yahweh move!" Where are we going to sleep tonight, Daddy? Right in the will of Yahweh. We are going to sleep wherever He puts us. WE HAVE NO FEAR. Yahweh is ABLE! If you're going to learn this new song, you've got to learn these verses. I love the next verse.

Verse 23 The quiver rattles around him, along with the flashing spear and lance.

The flashing or glittering spear and the lance or spear; do you know what that means? It's really simple: the bows and the arrows are shooting all around him. The quiver that holds the bows and arrows; it's all around him, but he goes into battle. He has no fear; no fear at all. And I love verse 24.

Verse 24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage; nor can he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.

The ground represents your flesh. He swallows up his pride. It is your pride that causes you to not be able to have faith in Yahweh. Your pride. Your pride as a man: I am the provider of this home. One accident and your days are over with, providing anything. You aren't a provider. HE IS! I said, "He Is!" But I'm... You're NOTHING. You have to swallow up the ground; swallow up that pride. I'm going to show you how to swallow up the ground. Watch this: when you do this (below), that's how you paw at the valley.

That's how you swallow up your pride. "Father, I need You to help me today. I need You to help my little wife and help my little girls and my boys. I need You to help my family today, Father. I need you to help us because I don't even know what to do or where to start, so I will swallow up the ground and swallow up my pride, and I'm going to ride into this battle. I don't know how to fight, I don't know how to ride. I don't know what to do! I just feel You're able, and I mock my fear! I will mock what mocks me."

You have to learn this! This is your song. If you want to be the Overcomer, you've got to overcome.

Verse 24-25 24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage; nor can he stand still at the sound of the trumpet. 25 At the blast of the shofar he exclaims; Aha! He catches the scent of the battle from afar, the roar of commanders and the battle cry.

I want you to know what this is saying. It says he is in a place of discerning. He hears the trumpet, but he doesn't rush into battle because he has to stop and discern—smell—the wind. He is hearing something that is trying to deceive him; to lure him into battle prematurely. But the bride of Yahshua has an ability in her to discern beyond the trumpet. That's what I've come to preach to you. The title of my message is: It's Time to Kill a Mockingbird. The last thing that I noticed about this horse is in verse 28.

Verse 28 He dwells and lodges upon the rock, the rocky crag is his stronghold.

The bride, she's like the eagle; she is solid on the rock. We are coming into the end time hours and this congregation, locally and nationally, that calls me your pastor; I want you to hear what I'm about to tell you. There will be strange trumpets blowing, to convince you that there's a move of God here. I don't want to do what I have to do tonight, but Israel needs a shepherd. The Bible said that when this horse heard the trumpet, they didn't run yet. They stood still. It sounds like a battle but I don't smell anybody yet! Something isn't adding up so I'm going to stand on this rock; I'm going to hold position. I'm not going to be distracted by what you're calling A Move of God. We're living in the Age of Deception. We must become like this horse when we hear a trumpet, that trumpet that we're longing for, which will be the last move of Yahweh. We're waiting for the LAST trump of Yahweh; we're waiting for it. We want a revival, oh we do. We just don't want a fake trumpet.

Don't ever think we don't want a revival. Don't ever think we don't want a move of Yahweh. But these mature horses have learned that you don't take off running after every trumpet. We must become protectors of Truth rather than chasers of lies! When I saw this horse in verse 25, I saw a horse that was hearing a call to battle, but something wasn't adding up. Those young horses would run right into battle, but not these horses. Remember, the King of Humility said, "There's something in you, little bride that's not like the flock of the shepherds' tents. I picked up something in you." This is where Yahweh is calling the end time bride: to become a discerner of the sounds! We're in that moment now, where the greatest gift you will ever get is the gift of DISCERNMENT. We've got to move this little bride—this little flock—into the position of this horse. We must become a discerner of lies. We must begin to know the difference.

There's a reason I've titled this sermon, To Kill a Mockingbird. You need to understand the reason the Church in the last days is going to be so deceived. It's because they've never found this rock to stand on. This rock is TRUTH. They don't desire truth. They desire a move of God. They desire to run and follow any sound that sounds like revival. But there must be a people that says, "Hold on! I want to go to the deliverance tent! I want to run there, but I'm going to listen a little bit longer. I'm going to listen for a few things I know to listen for, because if Acts 2:38 doesn't apply to your revival, it isn't a revival."

So, what did I do this week? I've been listening. Please listen to me and don't be distracted. I'm trying to teach you how to not be deceived in these last days. I have been listening to something I'll never forget: the Lakeland Revival. Does anyone remember that revival in Lakeland, Florida with Todd Bentley? I do. I remember that everybody wanted me to go. Everybody was there. Everybody. All the You Know Whos were there. I never could go. I wanted to be cool and go with all the preachers to this great revival, but I couldn't go. I found out a year later that that entire time, Todd Bentley was having an affair during the whole revival with his secretary, and he left his wife during the revival. My point is that everybody was screaming "Revival has hit Lakeland." And then Pensacola, Florida. I never could go to Pensacola. And Branson. I never could go. Everybody was going. They were having A Move of God. People barking like dogs, and everything else. It was happening; they were piling in from everywhere. Why couldn't I go? I wanted to go, but I couldn't go. When it was all over with, the church was destroyed and the pastor of the church resigned.

And now there's another trumpet going off in America about a revival in Wilmore, Kentucky, at Asbury University. I want to encourage all of you hearing this message that I've been sent with this message by my heavenly Father, to teach you how to know a true revival from a pseudo revival. Any time Yahweh begins to truly move among the bride, there will always be a bigger move among the body. You didn't understand that, so I'll try again. There's ALWAYS a distraction from what Yahweh is really doing. When He's restoring the Lost Tribes of Israel, when He's restoring the Identity Message, when He's restoring the End Time Message of the Hour; then He will create another revival that mimics a real revival, and you can tell by the words spoken.

I've been listening to the 2023 Asbury Revival, because I want to believe, but I've heard a few words. Number one: There will be no preaching at this revival. No one is in charge except the Holy Ghost. No hierarchy. All I hear is rebellion when I hear that. No man is leading this. Yahweh has never led in any other way than through a man! See, I've been listening, because I don't want to be like I am. I don't. I want to jump like those horses and run to the trumpet, but what you're going to do is run into a trap! And then I asked someone who is there right now on the ground reporting to me, "Has anyone preached the Gospel?"

"Oh no, we're just worshiping."

"Has there been even one invitation to receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost?"

"No doctrine here; we're just worshiping."

All of a sudden a verse came into my mind: In vain do they worship Me. I don't want to be like this, but somebody has to say, "Hold on a minute; what is Yahweh really doing in the earth today?" Now Brother Vaughn, you should always be happy when people are focused on Jesus. That's the problem! Jesus is the Word! When you've announced that there's going to be no preaching, then you've just told me that there is no Jesus there! I'm listening! If that changes tomorrow, then I'll go right there and join in, but what I've heard so far is that there's NO Word. But Brother Vaughn, they're at the altar praying; they're crying. They're doing this, they're doing that, but my beloved friend, when you get up from the altar crying, if you're still walking in rebellion, you've done nothing but have a tear in your beer at a bar room; calling it a move of God.

Why am I preaching this? Because deception is hard to discern. Brother Vaughn, they're sincere. I know a lot of people who are sincere, but there's only one plan of salvation: repent and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Yahshua for the remission of your sins. Anything besides that is not revival. Now it may be a prayer meeting, but it's not a revival. A revival is a RETURNING to the old landmarks. Brothers and sisters, I've come to tell you to be careful that you don't jump at every trumpet sound! Brother Vaughn, I want to sing the new song. The reason we cannot discern in this hour is because you can't tell the difference. It's impossible.

We can discern the difference between us and the LGBTQ community. We can discern. They're not our enemies. Do you know that they don't have a problem with us? But to discern those that are supposed to be end time Israel is where it gets hard, because you can't see the difference. But Brother Vaughn, I want to know how to discern. Then that means you want to be like Messiah. In I King chapter 3, verse 9-11, King Solomon asked for one thing. This is the Song of Solomon, and you want to learn his song. He only asked for one thing: discernment. That's all he wanted. He wanted to be able to discern the good from the bad. And until you desire to discern, then you cannot sing this new song. I am going to teach you that the hour that we're living in is an hour of great deception.

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of Yahweh; *the Law and the Prophets, is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of body and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Brother Vaughn, how can I discern? I'll tell you how you can't discern. You can't discern by your own thinking. But Brother Vaughn, I feel good about it; I feel like it really... I know what you feel, but according to Hebrews, the Word is the discerner. Do you know why this Church Age is jumping at every trumpet? Because no one is talking about the Word. And therefore, they feel good and they jump. They run from revival to revival, jumping, because they don't know the Word of Yahweh.

The famine in the end time is not a famine of bread. It will be a famine of the Word of Yahweh. When I hear a revival say that we're not going to have a preacher; we're not going to have the Word, I am sorry, but according to my Bible, that's the only way you can have revival—through the preaching of the Word of Yahweh, because that's the only way you can discern. But if Satan knows that you have to have the Word to discern, then his favorite revival will be one without the Word. You have to have a ROCK!

So what does he do? If Yahweh is revealing His Word over here, it's time to have a revival over here. I don't know if you hear what I'm saying. If Yahweh is truly sending revival among that little flock, then Satan says, "Hey, time for revival so I can deceive the people." He is revealing His Word through ministries like this, across the nation; through this one and many others. There is a True bride's revival that is happening right now! Anytime there's a REAL one, you can look for Fox News to advertise a fake one. They will never advertise this one, I promise you. You know why? It's the Word Revival! I'm not here to destroy anything except deception! Quit jumping at the glitter when you've found the gold! Yahweh is revealing His Word in this hour!

I'm going to say something now that's going to cause me to lose 5,000 followers watching the video of this message in thirty seconds. Do you know where Satan would love to have you tonight instead of listening to this sermon? Have you seen the highlighted Bibles in our congregation? Have you seen that? That's the only thing he fears. He doesn't mind anybody praying to Yahweh or crying at the altar. That can't discern him. That doesn't discern him. You can't discern the devil. I can't discern him. The Word of Yahweh is the discerner! When it's not lining up with that Book, I'm not the one discerning. If it's not lining up with something in the Word, "In VAIN do they worship ME!" Why? "Because they come and worship Me with their mouth." He says that's the last thing He wants. "I don't need worship; I've got angels for that. They do a great job. I'm not trying to get you to worship Me; I'm trying to get you to OBEY Me because that IS worship! It's the only worship I'm looking for."

Those of you that are sitting here on the Sabbath day of the week, you have given more worship to your God than a million people opening their mouths and singing for 34 hours straight. You are the revival and Yahweh is truly pouring His Word out to you in these end times! Brother Vaughn, wouldn't you rather see them all worshipping? You're not going to like the answer so just get ready. I have to find a way to say this without saying it the way I want to say it. Ok, I'll just say it. I would rather see one of my son's with a full fledged prostitute and know she's a prostitute, than to see him with who is supposed to be his wife, that's a prostitute on the slip. In case you didn't catch it, I'll try again. Brother Vaughn, don't you want to see them at the altars crying and praying? Listen to me! It's harder at that point to bring them truth, than it is the one out there that's not been deceived into thinking they are part of a move of God when they have not moved FOR God.

There's great deception in this hour! You must become judges of this age. It's the spirit of this age. I dare say to you, Here is what doesn't ring in my spirit: Brother Vaughn, I don't bear witness with that. I don't care what you bear witness with. You can't even trust your own Holy Ghost. I'm going to say it again. I know people who are shackled up and say it doesn't bother their spirit. They can't trust their own Holy Ghost. Their Holy Ghost isn't the discerner. According to Hebrews 4:12, the Word is the discerner.

So, I'm going to show you how easy it is to be deceived today. On my Facebook timeline, all I see is This is That being poured out. I see Pentecostal preachers on my timeline saying these words, "Is this not the outpouring that we're praying for!" Do you know what most Christians say in response? "Oh yes! Yes! We've been praying for this in this time!" And yet, there's a discerner that lives in me called the Word of Yahweh and I just can't jump yet; do you understand? Because I know what the Word said. Those preachers that are saying that are ignorant of the Sabbath Day!! Why? The outpouring of the Holy Ghost that they're talking about in the book of Joel is AFTER those days! After! They don't know the time because they're not in the Word.

Brother Vaughn, you should just be thankful. Why?! Thankful that the Church is this blind? That they think that people lining up to have a prayer meeting is revival? Maybe you can pray your way all the way to deception. The whole Catholic Church prays more than you do! I'm not putting down prayer, but I have come to tell you, if you're not based on that Word, you can pray and still be deceived. According to the Word in the book of Joel, I am going to pour out My Spirit on all flesh AFTER those days. What days? Day number five; day number six. Sadly, these preachers don't know about day number five and day number six; and they definitely don't know about day number seven.

So therefore, you can believe this is that. No you can't! Brother Vaughn, you have lost it! I challenge you to meet me publicly and I'll prove to you from God's Word and the book of Joel, that it cannot be fulfilled until the seventh day! But if you don't know that, it sounds good that this is that. You have another little problem though. His name is Yahshua. He said when He returns there won't even be anything left on the earth. People will believe these lies about an end time revival and they will accept anything that looks like one. All it will do is pull you away from the Word and Truth. When you quit loving doctrine and loving truth, you are ready to be deceived.

Brother Vaughn, I believe this is now, with the Holy Spirit being poured out. All right, then go read the whole chapter 2 of Joel. Tell me the contents. Tell me that Joel prophesied about a day when the sun will be darkened; when the moon will appear as blood; when great smoke will fill the air; when a third of mankind is destroyed, and an army from the north, which is Russia, has come down upon Jerusalem. He said, “AFTER those days, then I’ll pour out My Spirit. Not just on a handful in the Upper Room, but on ALL flesh. But not until THEN. Until then, I’m pouring it out on the House of Israel. When I see people make those posts, I cry because they are good people, but they don’t know this Book and therefore they’re being misled from one trumpet to the next trumpet. And therefore, they have no desire for truth because they want to go where the Spirit is moving. A spirit is moving, but that doesn’t make it holy.

Brother Vaughn, something’s moving. I know! But that doesn’t make it holy. So what happened on the day of Pentecost, Pastor? I thought Peter said, “This is That.” He did, and this could have been that if the Jewish people would have accepted this. But Yahweh knew they wouldn’t accept it because He blinded their eyes. That’s why the prophet said, “After those days.” So what the Apostle Peter and the others received was a down payment of that when they could have gotten it all right then. But now, brothers and sisters, what you’re being told on your Facebook timeline is, “Don’t listen to Brother Vaughn because he’s telling you there is no final outpouring.”

That’s where they’re wrong. I believe there’s an outpouring coming that they don’t even know about. I believe there’s an outpouring coming that they can’t even comprehend. EVERY man is going to know the Lord! That day is coming, but I know WHEN, and I can’t be deceived before then! What is the sign of your coming, Yahshua? Be not deceived. What is the first sign that You are about to return? That My people will be deceived because they don’t have the discernment in them!

Have you ever had the pleasure of standing outside? One of my favorite things in my garden are things I didn't pay for: the little birds. There's a lot of expensive things in my garden and none of them give me pleasure like my birds. I watched them today; they've come back home now, but I want to talk to you about a bird that you've got to kill. If you've ever heard this bird sing, you wouldn't know you were listening to a mockingbird, because they memorize more than 200 bird songs. You might think you're listening to a quail. You might think you're listening to a cardinal. You might think you're listening to a robin. You might think you're listening to a blue jay. The list goes on and on and on. But, you're not listening to any of those birds; you're listening to a mockingbird.

Now, as I began to listen to mockingbirds by watching several videos of the mockingbird, I learned that they do not only mock other songs, as many people believe. That's not true. The mockingbird does have their own song; their own message, but to get you to listen to their song, they need you to think you're listening to truth. Yahweh told me to teach you tonight, how to kill a mockingbird. I was listening to these birds sing and I said, "Lord, what do You want to tell us? Why did You give us the mockingbird?" Think about it. Why would He do that? It's the most useless animal in the world. Even a pig has more use than a mockingbird."

A mockingbird is a duplication of the original, and it wants to convince you that it's a bluebird. It wants to convince you that you're hearing truth. "I can dress this thing up to make you believe. I'll make it sound real Christian. I'll make it sound real biblical. I'll mock the Church, and I'll sing just like them. I'll pray just like them. I'll have church just like them, UNTIL you've enjoyed listening to me for so long that I'm finally starting to sing my song: my message that I've hidden behind the other message that I communicated."

Yahweh told me that there's mockingbird spirit in this church. He said, "Even as the mockingbird sings the songs of others, the adversary of Yahweh's Church can mimic the Creator and sing to you." So I'm preaching the third part of The Song the Angels Cannot Sing. You've got to learn as you're learning this song, how to discern the other songs that sound just like this song. When the false prophet—the Mark of the Beast—is written on your life, it will never be a sinner's mark. It's the mark of a Christian. I've always wondered how anybody could be so ludicrous to think that any of us would take a mark on our forehead or our hand. You'd have to kill me first. Maybe that's a mockingbird song. It's to get you to see something else, while not hearing the song the mockingbird really wants to sing. So the truth is, Christianity has come and sung you a song from the Word of God. Otherwise you wouldn't have listened to it. If they couldn't have shown you a scripture and a verse, you wouldn't have listened to it. Somebody said, "If you preach something to me, you better show it to me, scripture and verse."

Not me. You better show it to me from Genesis to Revelation. Mockingbirds love to sing a single verse. Here's one of them: It's not by works lest any man should boast. And Christians say, "Well, that verse lines up with the Word." They sing their songs to where you think you're hearing the truth. When this false prophet comes into your life, he will always come as a loving Christian; as a preacher of truth, only wanting to have a move of God. And he will sing like a lark and you will love his song. You know why? That discerner is not in you.

You can ask my wife about when we were first married and I'd walk into the house and Joyce Meyer was on the screen and I'd want to throw up. Oh Brother Vaughn! I'm sorry; there's something in the voice. It's not a clear voice and she's quoting scriptures the whole time. A mockingbird. They sing just like the Bible! But there's something if you're built on the Word. Now if you're built just on faith, I love faith, but you can't hear it. You're not ready. If you're built just on prayer, you can't hear it. But when you find a teacher of truth, they'll put you on a rock that you'll never fall off of. You ought to thank Yahweh for truth!

It's just like what I taught you a few minutes ago. You've learned more than the whole church I grew up in, knows! You've learned what This is That means. You've learned the truth about Joel's prophecy and who it's for. You've just learned MORE. But you see, I can sing a bird song from the book of Joel. I can take one verse out of Joel: Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams... chirping like a bird. And you will say, “It’s in the Word.” It’s just birds singing. But if somebody has built you on a biblical foundation, and you know about the Millennial Reign, you ‘ll say, “Whoa! Not me today, Satan. There won’t be deception here, because that is for those days and I’m going to make it all the way so I can see that outpouring!”

I didn’t want to preach this message against revivals, but I have a duty and an obligation. Here’s my duty when I go home tonight even if nobody supports me: The very same God that supported me as a little boy, will support me all the way to the grave. Do you understand me? My job is to be a shepherd in the House of Israel, and you can’t have a revival without the WORD! They sing counterfeit songs. Let me ask you a question. If you were going to seduce the body of Yahshua, what would you need to do it with? I think you would need some scriptures. So, for those of you not grounded in the Word, you heard this week on your Facebook timeline, this is that; the outpouring we’ve been praying for is here. I wished it were so.

But I’m going to tell you the outpouring is here, because the Bible said that the latter rain would be a teaching rain. We are living in the outpouring . We’ll never be on Fox News. We’ll never be on CNN. But we’ll be on a rock that will NEVER fall! You need to thank Yahweh that He’s called you to this moment, this marvelous light, so that you don’t hear a fake trumpet!

If you’re going to seduce the body of Yahshua, there would be no purpose to counterfeit something that did not fit biblical criteria in some manner. One who counterfeits money doesn’t counterfeit fifteen dollar bills. They counterfeit the one or the twenty or the five; there is no fifteen dollar bill. Satan will only counterfeit the Word. Some folks say, “I want to go to a church that preaches the Word.” That isn’t good enough! You better find one that preaches the WHOLE council of the Word of Yahweh from beginning to end, because in these hours you’re going to be deceived. Only that which is genuine is counterfeited.

That which is genuine to the body of believers—what’s the first thing you tell somebody? “You better show that to me in the Bible.” Well, guess what? They can. They’re mockingbirds. They sing what they’ve learned; not what they know. They sing what they’ve heard other preachers say. They’re mocking birds. I’ll give you an example. They might get up and tell you this message: We need to love one another; that’s Bible. Mockingbird! God is love is their message. The spirit of Satan can’t seduce you without the Bible. You can’t be deceived unless they use the Bible to do it. God is love! Yes, He is; but now you need another preacher that will tell you what love is. Now you need another preacher that will say, “I know what love is, and the Bible says, “If you love Me, keep My commandments.” But you see, you can’t just tell me that God is love, because that’s a mockingbird’s message. But it works!

We need to love one another. Don’t judge anybody. The Bible said not to judge anybody. Mockingbird! It says that, and yet it doesn’t. And they point to scripture: sound bite doctrine. You know what? I can sing a mockingbird song and sing that scripture to you and I can deceive you. Listen to me, saints of Yahweh. If you endure this last Church Age, it will only be because someone has built you on a rock. You’re all about to see that anything that can be shaken will be shaken. You NEED a teacher! You need TRUTH! Don’t judge people! If I was to go to my Facebook timeline and post God is love and we aren’t supposed to judge one another, I would have 500 likes, 200 loves, and tons of comments in 30 seconds. Do you know why? It’s all true; but just because it’s true doesn’t make it truth.

It’s true that Donald Trump isn’t the president, but that’s not the truth. I just proved my point to you. They can tell you, “He’s not the president.” That’s true, but it’s still a lie. Because he is the president, unless you want to steal elections by fraud. It’s true, but it’s not, because what you don’t have is the rest of the story. You don’t have the rest of the true things. When they brought Jacob the bloody coat of Joseph, it was true, but it wasn’t truth. It was a mockingbird, singing a song that sounded like truth. Be careful of these mockingbird revivals that sound like truth and then announce publicly that no man is allowed to preach. If you think I’m making that up, go look online. That's what they're bragging about. They're not going to let man "ruin it." I'm listening. I'm not trying to be ugly, but I'm listening.

If you're not bringing the Word in its Full Measure, you've got a mockingbird. There's another one: Love one another. They're right, so right. Don't Judge. They're right, and yet they're wrong. They may come preaching that they're against abortion. Great, but a mockingbird. They may come preaching the song of tolerance; that we need to love and tolerate people. Mockingbird. And yet, it's true. But it's not truth. It was true that Yahshua was dead, but that wasn't the truth. In these days, you have to learn the difference between what's true and what's truth. Yashua said, "Take heed that no man deceive you" and, "Everything that can be shaken will be shaken." What better way to drown out the voice of Elijah, than to put on the show of Elijah.

Brother Vaughn, what are you talking about? It's very simple. In the book of Revelation when it's talking about the AntiChrist, he calls fire down from heaven. Guess who else did that? Elijah. The AntiChrist is saying, "Ignore Elijah; we can do the same thing." We don't want to hear the message, but we can breathe the fire. We are living in that hour now. I realize that this message was not like the last two where you were shouting the house down, but I have come to teach you about these mockingbirds in the church. They are singing you a song and it sounds like Christianity. It sounds like the Bible, but at the end of the day, their own song comes through. At the end of the day, the mockingbird will sing you his song with his voice. But he can't get that voice into your life until he sounds like a bluejay. Until it sounds like truth, they can't give you lies. To kill a mockingbird.

Yahweh has raised us up in this last hour of time. Sometimes I wonder if we truly believe that Yahshua's returning. I wonder if we truly believe it, because nobody wants the revelation of His Word. They want revival. Don't we all want revival? Yes, but there's a mockingbird revival and there's TRUE revival. If you've ever find a ministry that changes your life; you have found revival. Yahweh is calling us to kill a mockingbird. Follow truth! Yahweh's getting you ready for Yahshua's soon return. And He said that the only ones that will reign with Him are those that didn't hear the mockingbird. They weren't deceived. What a beautiful promise. Brother Vaughn, what does a mockingbird sound like? Joel Osteen. T.D. Jakes. Brother Vaughn, why would you say that? Just last week he said he denied the Oneness of God and has accepted the Trinity. Mockingbird. I knew it would come; I knew it was coming. The minute you start walking away from one truth, you'll walk away from all of it. Your baptism will change; everything will change because you don't love truth.

But, tonight in this house, I see a revival. I see people that are not like they were just a little while ago. I see people that are changing under the taut Word of Yahweh. As it's rearranging your lives, that's REVIVAL. So many of you have been to prayer meetings every night. Yahweh's doing something. If you want to find revival, sit your behind right where you're at, here at First Harvest Ministries. When some of you wanted to run off to Tennessee to the big tent, do you think I have anything against the tent or against the brother? No. BUT I KNOW A MOCKINGBIRD! And I love little mockingbirds. I don't have anything against them. I just know that in this end time, you aren't going to make it without a voice of truth in your life.
