

Tracking The Tribes part 3

Migrations of Israel

By Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

The other day, I watched the coronation of the King of England, and of course I'm happy to report the main thing I was looking for under that throne was the Stone of Scone, or the Stone of Destiny was there. I was concerned that it was not going to be there, but I looked, and sure enough, there was that great stone that Jacob anointed and called The House of Yahweh. He anointed that stone, laid his head on that pillar stone, and I've already taught on that. I'm not going to do it again today, but that great stone is still sitting there! Why would a stone be sitting under a throne? It makes absolutely no sense. It doesn't fit into the beauty of the occasion, but it's an old foundation, and we're going to talk some today about that great foundation.

As they anointed King Charles III, and he kissed the Bible, when they anointed him, they were singing Hallelujah in the background as they anointed him. As he was walking down the aisle, true to tradition, they were singing Zadok the Priest Coronation Anthem (I Kings 1:38-40) and I Was Glad (Psalm 122) which is the Jerusalem hymn for coronation. And so I watched, and that was wonderful. It was all beautiful. But then, it got very sad.

Here's where it got sad for me: When they all walked out on the balcony, there was one boy missing from the balcony. I'm not sad because he was missing. I'm sad because standing on public display in their royal regalia, as servants of the people of Great Britain; standing there in their moment, receiving the accolades and the love of their citizens, I looked at a boy that could have been standing there; a boy where that is his birthright to be standing there with his family.

I want to teach you a lesson. It's always the same when rebellion gets in your heart. It always turns out the same. You get attention for a little while. You make a lot of noise. You get a moment of attention. He and Meaghan got attention; they created a lot of noise and got a few people on their side, but today, they were out of their place. They were unwelcome. There was no place for them in their inheritance. Do you know who will suffer for that? Their children. I looked at Princess Kate, and Prince William, and their children standing there in their inheritance. Prince Harry's children will never fit into that inheritance because of choices that their father made under the Jezebel authority of his wife.

As I looked at that balcony, I said to myself, "Yahweh, one day the balcony of the heavens is going to open." Coming out will be the Great King of all Kings. HalleluYah! And on His right hand and His left hand, across the sky for the whole world to see, will be the royal family. It will be the elohim, the resurrected brothers of Yashua Messiah, and we will all stand there after many years of struggle and heartache, after many attacks from the enemy, after fighting for the crown every single day of our lives. But one day, just like today when you saw Prince William walk out with a new robe—he wasn't wearing his regular clothes. He was wearing a robe of regalia.

One day, I read in the book of Revelation, that when the redeemed are gathering in, they will all be given new robes. They'll be given new names. They'll be given new crowns. Ladies and gentlemen, the reason that throne still exists is to keep in your mind and in your purview, The Coming Kingdom of Yahweh when the royal family will stand on the balcony of space, and we will take our positions as the new government of Planet Earth.

But I beg you today, and I warn you like Paul did in Hebrews chapter three and chapter four, be careful unless you fall short of entering into that rest, entering into that position! Prince Harry fell short, ladies and gentlemen. I hope you're hearing me today. Prince Harry fell short. He was robbed of his position. Do you know how he was robbed of it? He got bitter in his heart towards the queen and the king, and the royal family. He got bitter in his heart against the institution. He got bitter in his heart against the Church, if you will. He got bitter in his heart because he felt like he had been done wrong.

You need to listen to your pastor now, and listen well. If you have been done wrong, Count It All JOY! Because you are going to get done wrong again, and again, and again. If you get offended every time you get done wrong, you're going to fall short. You are going to get so offended at the work of Yahweh, and the people in the work of Yahweh, that you will not be able to submit, you will not be able to work with anybody. You'll become an island to yourself.

You will think that this is about you and Yahshua. Nothing could be further from the truth. Yashua does not come to the individual. The Bible says He comes to His Temple! There's nobody hearing me now. You all have been deceived with this modern Christian idea that this is between you and Yahshua. No Ma'am. This is between you and His Body. You need to learn to discern the body; the Body of Christ. You cannot love the head while hating the body.

So many of you have fallen into deception. You are going to study on your own: This is just me and I'm going to study. Listen! You need a pastor, you need a shepherd, you need a congregation. You need somewhere to work for Yahweh! Do you think that alone you're going to make a change? TOGETHER we can do great things. Together we can build the places where we can come into unity and work together, and build the work of Yahweh. This end time work is not about individuals. It's about the Third Temple FITLY JOINED together.

He only comes to His Temple, and you're not His Temple, darling. The Bible said that the Temple is made up of LIVING Stones FITLY, Perfectly, joined together. It's all about teamwork to make the dream work. Brothers and sisters, when you realize that Yahweh has called you to be part of the royal family, He has called you to be something bigger than yourself so you will not be missing on that balcony, on that GREAT DAY! That's just a little pastoral warning for some of you. I pray that you will hear it and receive it in the way that the Lord told me to give it to you this morning. Amen.

We're going to pick up where we left off last week. Praise Yahweh! Thank you Father. Yesterday two ladies came up to me here in Utah, and they said, "We need to talk to you," and they set me down. They said, "We need to talk to you so our husbands can't hear us," because their husbands are not on the same page. They had been watching my teachings and they said, "We must be rebaptized! We were baptized in the Trinity, and we must be rebaptized." So these two ladies are coming to the Feast of Tabernacles to be baptized in the Name of Yahshua the Messiah. We are doing the work of the Lord everywhere we go. We are bringing people into this end time message, so I'm looking forward to seeing them at Tabernacles.

So last week we left off talking about Jeremiah the Prophet. We were talking about the royal seed last week. When we were talking about that royal seed, if you'll remember, there had just been a great battle, and the seed of David—the Royal House of David—had to leave Jerusalem. The captains of the armies had to leave with them, and we found that story in II Kings 24, and that after they left Jerusalem, they went to Egypt. When they got to Egypt, many of them stayed right there, and some may have even gone down into Ethiopia. That's why you find Israelite blood even in Africa, and Ethiopia.

Some went down to Ethiopia. The prophet, Jeramiah, went from Egypt to Spain, and he didn't go by himself. He had two girls with him, and his secretary by the name of Baruch. After they left Spain, they went to Ireland, and that's where the name Ireland comes from: David's ire. That's why the harp of David is on the royal standard flag of the royal house. You'll always find that harp of David there. One wonders why they would put a harp on their flag. Because the ire is the harp.

This seal that you see on the next page, is the Seal of Baruch. Baruch was the private secretary of the prophet Jeremiah. That is going to become important as we go through this lesson even further—the Seal of Baruch.

This minister of Yahweh had his own secretary, and Baruch was his name. Baruch, and then King Zedekiah had two daughters. Zedekiah was the last king of Judah from the House of David. Zedekiah had two daughters. Jeremiah took those two daughters in his personal care as the prophet of Yahweh. Why? Because remember the prophecy that we covered several weeks ago? That there would never lack someone to sit on David's throne, ever. So he took the two daughters, and they are known as the seed royal.

The Bible does not record their names. However, if you go to Ireland into their museums and their history, you will find that boat on the left side of the page. All of the Irish records speak of a boat that came from Jerusalem, and on that boat was a prophet by the name of Jeremy. That's what they said his name was: Jeremy. We know that was Jeremiah. They also say that the princesses of the House of David were on that boat. One of their names was Scota. Now you might know where the name Scotland came from. The other sister was Tamar.

I have lots of books in my library about Tamar and Scota. It's interesting to say the least. Tamar, when she went through Egypt with Jeremiah, was given the name Tea Tephi. So you will hear her referred to as Tamar or Tea Tephi. I'm not going to teach that part today. I'm going to do that in part six, which is three weeks down the road, but we'll really dive into that.

Now Daniel spoke about the Babylonian Captivity in his writings. He wrote about it many times. Jeremiah and Daniel prophesied about this Babylonian captivity. This was written by Daniel while he was a captive with the other Jewish people and the Benjaminites in Babylon. That captivity lasted seventy years. On the right is a picture of ancient Babylon. This is where the Jewish people were taken into captivity for seventy years.

Let's talk about this captivity of the House of Judah. Who is already in captivity 150 years before this captivity? Israel. I want you to stay with me, because things are going to get a little confusing as we move forward. I'm going to try to clarify this for all of you. One-hundred fifty years earlier, millions of Israelites, children of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob, were transported to Assyria. Later in today's class we're going to start tracking those millions of people. However, here is now another group of people that we have to start tracking. The first group, 150 years earlier, had been taken captive. But now, 150 years later, Judah her sister, is being taken captive.

However, keep this in your minds: this is imperative—the House of David did NOT go into Babylonian captivity with the rest of the Jews. Why not? Remember, last week I taught you that when King Nebuchadnezzar attacked, Jeremiah had already taken the seed royal before Babylon could come in. He took the seed royal and the captains of the people, and they fled to Egypt.

Why is this important? We now have three groups of people we have to track. Let's back up. Israelites/Assyria; Jews/Babylonia; The House of David/Egypt, Spain, Ireland. Three groups of people. As I'm teaching these lessons, you have to keep all these movements—these migrations—separate if you want to find where the throne of David is today; if you want to find where the Israelites are today, and where the Jews are.

When you figure out where all these people are, you'll know why Yahweh raised up Professor Toto. You'll understand why we're fighting for America, and for Donald Trump. I could care less about politics. I've never been into it, but I love Yahweh, and whatever He's involved in, I'm involved in. You need to know why you're fighting the way you're fighting folks. There is something spiritual about this battle that we've all been called to.

Is everyone with me on the three different migrations? Let me see your hands. Now we can continue. I don't want you to get confused as we move forward. Alright, now what you need to understand about all of these migrations is that they're all ordained by Yahweh. The reason they are ordained by Yahweh is going to be explained in these lessons Tracking the Tribes. I want everybody to listen to me carefully. Whenever somebody tells you that you can't mix politics with religion, we didn't mix politics with religion. I'm reading where Yahweh divinely divided nations, and set them up and tore them down. So if it is Yahweh that has caused all of this, I must be involved in all of this, to be involved with Yahweh. Is anybody following me now?

This is not politics. This is the divine hand of Yahweh that is calling us all into this battle for America. You're going to understand that battle. If you're not fit for the battle, you're going to find out by the end of this lesson. Let's pick up right there. Let's go to Jeremiah 24:1-7, and we're going to read a parable about these tribes of Israel, specifically the Jewish tribe, and we're going to find out about this Babylonian captivity.

Yeremyah 24: 1-7 Yahweh showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set in front of the sanctuary of Yahweh, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away from Yerusalem as captives Yeconyah (Yahyakin) son of Yahyakim, king of Yahdah, along with the princes of Yahdah, and the craftsmen and smiths, and had brought them to Babylon.

Let's pause there. Yahweh showed Jeremiah a vision BEFORE

Nebuchadnezzar came to Babylon to take them all away.

Why do you think Yahweh showed him that vision, folks? So he could take the seed royal and protect them from this coming destruction. He said, "I saw two baskets of figs."

That's the vision he saw on the left. That's Jeremiah looking at two baskets of figs. Now listen to what he says about these figs.

2 One basket had very fine figs, like the figs that are first ripe; but the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then Yahweh asked me: What do you see, Yereyah? And I answered; Figs, the fine ones very fine; but the bad ones very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten.

4 Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying:

5 This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Like these fine figs, so will I acknowledge; regard, those who are carried away captive from Yahdah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own benefit, into the land of the Chaldeans.

Let's pause there. I want everyone to notice what he says. This is so powerful to me. The good figs are the ones that are going to be removed from the land of Judah and sent as slaves in the land of Babylon. Do you know what Yahweh calls those people? The GOOD figs. This is important. For those of you who wonder why bad things happen to good people, this is a bad thing happening to good figs. Do you know why they are good figs? Because they have so much faith in Yahweh that they know that even if He's going to make them slaves, He'll have to bless them in their slavery.

They have so much confidence in their God, that they know if they must become slaves, that's His will for their life. He said, "The good figs are those who see the good in the bad. They are the ones who praise me in the evil that I've allowed to happen to them in their lives. These are GOOD figs." He said, the ones who know: This is for my good. Notice what He said in that last part. "I will acknowledge them whom I allowed the enemy to destroy, and they thought it was good. I will acknowledge them."

Good figs have the SEED of Yahweh in them. There's no death in them. There's no curse in them. There's no bitterness in them, so if Yahweh takes it all away, they know that He's the one that gave it to them to begin with. He's going to have to give it all back, so they're okay with Him taking it all away. Blessed be the Name of Yahweh. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the Name of Yahweh! He said, "I will acknowledge them whom I have sent out of this place.” It was not the king of Babylon that took them, it was Yahweh who sent them away, and used the King of Babylon for His purposes in their life.

He said, “I will acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place, into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.” Do you know why it was for their good? Because they had forgotten Yahweh. Because they had begun to break His commandments. So He said, “I am going to make sure they don’t forget me forever. I’m going to shake up their nest for a little bit. I’m going to let trouble come into their lives so they can remember how good I am, and in just a few years, I’m going to give it all back to them, but I need to use their enemies to drive them back to prayer. To drive them back to obedience. To drive them back to total faith and submission.

Many of you right now have rebellion in your heart. You follow every little speaker, you don’t want to be held accountable, and you’ve got rebellion hiding in your heart. I want to tell you what’s going to happen to you. Why? Because it happened to me. You’re going to run into the hand of Yahweh, and He’s going to do it for your good. One day you’re going to wind up like Prince Harry, on the outside of the work of Yahweh because you could not submit to the hand of Yahweh. You must learn that Yahweh does things only for your good. ONLY FOR YOUR GOOD.

Those of you in the local church in Waveland who have squabbles and complaints, I want to tell you something: You’re going to be on the outside looking in if you don’t get it together. Why? Because it’s for anything bad that happened to you. It’s for your good. It’s to drive you to prayer. Do you know how every one of you can go to prayer? Do you know how I can get everyone of you to pray today? Let one of your loved ones start daying. Let your bank account be gone. Look over there and your job calls and says they don’t need you anymore. You’ll be on your knees in about thirty seconds. It’s for your GOOD! If it’s not, you will not pray; you won’t trust Yahweh.

Do you know what you'll do? He'll start blessing you, and all of a sudden, your tithe check will start slipping. All of sudden you don't show up for church. Why? You're getting too blessed. Let me tell you something: the reason some of you can't be blessed is that you can't be trusted with the blessing. Do you know that's why I am hated by some people so much? They don't know where my blessings come from. They don't know Yahweh has learned that He can trust me. He has learned that if He blesses me, I will bless the people. He has learned that by watching my life. When you become that person where you're never too blessed because you're constantly giving, giving, giving, then all of a sudden, you become a reservoir rather than a dam, for the blessing of Yahweh. HalleluYAH!

Let me tell you how this works. I watch all of you. I got a tithe yesterday from someone for two dollars. I knew right then that person had gotten a twenty dollar bill from somewhere. At that stage in your life, you're so faithful to obedience. Why? You need the Lord to come through for you. You are needing His blessings. But then I watch some of you that make good money, and you know what you all make. What happens to all of us, if we don't go through the testing of the Lord, we cannot be trusted with the big blessings.

Therefore, Yahweh has to send us back down to the bottom. Is anyone tired of going back down to the bottom? Then get it together! HalleluYah. Just get it together! Trust the Lord in EVERYTHING. How do you trust Him? By giving everything to Him. Some of you right now watching me are struggling. I'm begging you: Go back to prayer! The secret to success to PRAYER and OBEDIENCE to Yahweh; walking in the Torah, walking in obedience. If you want the blessing, don't make Him drive you to your blessing, send you to your blessing. Stand still and let the blessings come because of obedience in your life.

Do you know why in the year 2009 Yahweh knew that I was walking in rebellion? Do you know why He let me go to prison for three years? Listen. I want you to hear me and hear me well. They didn't arrest me. He arrested me. Do you not understand that? There was no law that arrested me. It was the servants of Yahweh. Police are the servants of Yahweh. They came and arrested me, and they sent me into a cell for MY GOOD. Why? Because He knew I was a good fig. He knew if He could get my mind right, I would bloom again. HalleluYah!

Yahweh's got to get your mind right. Sometimes He's got to shake you at your core. He's got to take everything you have. I'm preaching to somebody now. I don't know who you are, but you know who you are. Sometimes Yahweh has to take your children from you, He has to take your family from you, He has to take your job from you, He has to take everything you believed in, because you have been rebellious to His command. Jonah, you'll wind up in the belly of the whale every time. But listen to your pastor: if you will surrender; if you'll say, I'm done, I'm ready to submit to the hand of Yahweh, He will bless you!

You all weren't there when I was wearing orange. You all weren't there when I was scared to wake up every morning because I was scared of the environment I was in. But do you know that during that time was when I learned this message? During that time was when I wrote three hundred songs. During that time is when I told the Lord, "Take it all," because I knew if He did, He would give it all back. Look at who I'm married to now. Look at what I've got. Look what the Lord has done because I was a good fig.

Precious children of Yahweh, let me tell you, when I went to the bottom, I came out literally with my sweat pants and shower shoes. That's what I came out with. And in my hand, I had stacks of papers under my arms. That was this message I'm teaching you today. It was stacks and stacks of papers that I had written on what I teach now. I came out and I told the Lord, "All I've got is this message," and for years I taught that message and nobody was listening. But the Father saw that I would teach with three subscribers, that I would teach with three members in my church. He saw that my wife and I would be faithful. He said, "Be faithful a little longer. Take the beating a little while longer, because the moment is about to come if you won't rebel now."

Have you ever wondered what would have happened to you if I would not have obeyed Yahweh in my car that day three years ago when I heard His voice? I could have said, “Nobody’s listening.” I could have said, “What’s the point?” I could have said, “I’m not effective.” I could have said, “I’m not influential,” but I didn’t do it. One more time I did what He said to do, and now you know the rest of that story. That’s good figs. Yahweh’s looking for good figs. When people say, “I know about your past,” I say, “You don’t know anything about my past. Let me tell you about my past. If you knew about my past, you would know about my future, because my past created my future.” I’m telling somebody who’s watching me today that your past is creating your FUTURE.

Some of you cringe when you hear that word SUBMITTED, and that’s why you’ll keep going on back to the bottom. When you learn the beauty of that word, your whole life will change. Matthew, when you learn the beauty of submission, son; when you learn the beauty of Yes sir, and No sir in your heart, it will save you. You’re one of those boys we’re going to never have to get out of jail. You’re one of those boys we’re never going to have to get out of rehab. You’re an Israelite, son, and you’re being raised in the Torah. You learn how to submit to your parents, and watch what Yahweh will do to your life. Amen. AMEN! Glory to Yahweh! Let’s read.

6 So I will set My eyes upon them for righteousness,

Oh, I love that line right there. Do you all love that? The ones that I’m driving away, I’m going to keep My eyes on them. Do you all know we still serve that God? We still serve that God that puts His eyes on people He’s whipping. Do you know why His eyes are upon you when He whips you? To see how you’ll respond. I’m going to put My eyes on you. While I’m whipping you, I’m watching you, while I’m correcting you.

Even in our church, I watch people when I go to correct them. I’m looking for that jaw to see if it snaps back. I’m looking. Why? I can’t make you an elder, I can’t use you in this work if you’ve still got that stiff jaw. If you still have that attitude that nobody can tell you what to do, that's going to keep your life going in one big circle. You'll die not being on the balcony. My heart breaks for Prince Harry that he was not on that balcony today. You know why? He chose a moment. What did Moses say? I would rather suffer the affliction of God's people, than a moment of pleasure. HalleluYah.

and I will bring them again to this land; I will build them and not pull them down, and I will plant them and not pluck them up. 7 Then I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am Yahweh; and they will be My people, and I will be their Father, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.

Oh, HalleluYah. You know why they are going to return to Me with their whole heart? Because I drove them away. He said, "You were serving me with half your heart, so I had to drive you away. I had to make you feel like I had forgotten you; like I wasn't even hearing your prayers. I had to make you feel alone, because I plan to bring you back."

I plan to make America great again. I plan to bring you back, and build back better. See, those words that came out of Trump's mouth were not his words. Those were the words of Almighty Yahweh, prophetically speaking to America: I'm allowing Joe Biden to come in; I'm allowing evil to rule you so I can bring you back better than you were. I plan to bring you back. I plan to bring you back better than before I destroyed you. If I drive you away, you'll come running back home.

I got an email a few minutes ago from a sister who left the church a few months ago with that group that's still out there trying to destroy us. She emailed me and said, "I miss home. I miss being among the church, among the people." She has nowhere to go now. She has nowhere to be because rebellion was in her heart. I want you to hear me and hear me well. When the father sends you away, you'll come back, but this time you'll come back knowing what you've got. You'll be thankful. Yahweh is begging every one of us to serve Him with our whole hearts, and serve one another.

Brother Vaughn, how do I serve God with my whole heart? You're not going to like the answer, but I'm going to tell you. You can't serve Yahweh without serving His people. When people tell me, "I love Christ," I say, "Do you love His Church?" I say that because His Church IS HIM. When people say, "I love the Lord," I say, "Not if you don't love Sister so-and-so. Not if you don't love your pastor. Not if you don't love your brothers and sisters in this body. Don't lie and say you love the Lord. This is the Lord." How can you separate the head from the body? You can't.

When you say you love Jesus, but you don't love the Church, do you not understand that I LIVE to go to church? Do you not all know that I live for these Saturday mornings? Do you not know that I live for the Feast days? Why? That is when I get together with Christ. That IS the body of Christ. And when you serve one another, then you have served the Lord. For those of you that want to serve the Lord, but you don't want to serve one another, you're a liar. I didn't write that verse, by the way. That was written by the Holy Ghost. Amen. Praise Yahweh. Let's continue.

I want to read to you what the prophecy says: The good figs were going to go into captivity, into Babylon, for their own good, to learn a lesson of humility and obedience. But they would return again to the land of Judah, and when they do, they will have been reformed and belong to Yahweh once again. They will again return to His statutes, and be His people again. This return from Babylon is a spiritual and moral return, as well.

Those good figs are to be the progenitors of the Messiah through the descendants of the House of David. Do you know why He sent them to Babylon? If He wouldn't have done it, the Messiah would never have been born. These were the people that had to return to the commandments to produce the Messiah. So to get the Messiah to come out, we have to send them away for seventy years. This is for their good, so they can give the Messiah to the world. HalleluYah. Isn't that just wonderful how our God reigns supreme?

Yeremyah 24:8-9 And like the bad figs, which cannot be eaten because they are so bad—truly this is what Yahweh says—so I will deal with Zedekyah king of Yahdah, and his officials, and with the residue of Yerusalem who remain in this land and with those who dwell in the land of Egypt;

Now, there is a group of people that refuse to go into captivity, and those groups of people didn't realize that it was for their good.

9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them.

Who is this? Is that Israel or Judah? This is Judah. This is a prophecy of the Jewish people. What does it say I'm going to do to the Jewish people—those who will not submit, those who will not be reformed? I am going to make them a reproach, and a proverb, and a taunt, and a curse in ALL THE PLACES WHERE I WILL DRIVE THEM. Like Germany. I'm going to get them to come back to their senses, one way or another. This is your life, as well, my friends.

Those Jews who refused to be taken captive, and stayed behind, they're identified as EVIL figs. Those who remained in Judah intermarried with the non-Israelite inhabitants of the land, and they became known as the Samaritans. Now you might know why Yahshua called the Samaritan woman a dog. She was of those evil figs that refused to obey Yahweh.

Now I want to take you and we're going to leave the Jewish people now. We've been tracking them. We know that they went to Babylon. We know that the seed royal went to Spain and Ireland. We have a little migration. We know where everybody's headed. Now I want to take you back to the Israelites. They've been gone 150 years; millions of them. Now I want to take them and start tracking them. We've already tracked the other two (Judah, and the Royal House of David) and we'll come back to them later in part six. In part six, I'll start going over Tea Tephi, and Ireland, and all that with you. But now let's go back and let's find those other scattered tribes and see where they are going, and where they wound up. To do that, we're going to go to II Samuel 7:10.

II Samuyl 7:10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israyl,

I need you to pause right there. I thought the people of Israel already had a place appointed, called Jerusalem. Now watch this carefully. I need you all to hear me. It's going to get real good. I thought Israel already had a place appointed for them, called Jerusalem. If they've already got a place appointed, called Jerusalem, why do we have a prophecy that there will be another land appointed for Israel? Oh Yah help me. Watch this carefully. What am I going to do when I find a land for Israel? Read.

and I will plant them so they can have a home of their own, and be moved no more. The sons of wickedness will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning.

What am I going to do when I find a land for Israel? Plant them. I'm going to do what? PLANT THEM. I'm going to plant ISRAEL, not Jews; not the Jewish people, but I'm going to PLANT Israel in another land. I thought they were all going back to Jerusalem. You're all going to find out why He raised up Professor Toto in just a few minutes. You're going to find out that this is a spiritual battle. I could care less about politics. This is a spiritual thing.

Now why is He going to plant them in another land? So they can have a HOME of their own and be moved NO more. What's the rest of it? They will no longer be AFFLICTED. Does anyone know that America has not been afflicted ever. We've never been afflicted. We've never had to move again. We've become our own empire. Now this is not the Jews. This is those other people that He's going to give them another land. He gave the Jewish people Jerusalem, but Israel gets another land of their OWN.

Let's continue. Now we have to find that place that's appointed for My people Israel. We are going to start tracking these people to see if we can find that place where they will move NO MORE. This tells me that they are going to move a lot until they find that place where they will move no more. If you've got the Holy Spirit, you can see this a mile away. HalleluYah. It's a transplanted Israel. HalleluYah!

The division between northern and southern Israel has not happened at this point, but My people Israel is going to be divided. We know The House of Judah was given the scepter promise, whereas The House of Israel was given the birthright blessing. The blessing was divided, and now the people would go separate ways. They would not dwell together anymore. This is in a prophecy of My people Israel, because remember, the Jews are not referred to after the division as Israel. They are referred to as their sister, Judah. The great division changed everything.

This is important. Under King David, a prophet prophesied that there is going to be a new land for My people, Israel. Can you imagine living then? Has anyone considered that when Samuel gave that prophecy, how brave he had to be, because Jerusalem was never going to be taken away from the Jewish people. Ever. So how would this prophecy even fit? Yahweh knew the division was coming. He was the one who was going to divide them. Most historians agree that none of these tribes ever returned to Palestine, except for a very few, and we'll talk about those few in a minute.

The map on your left is going to show you where the journey began to take these millions of Israelites. They did not disappear off the earth. They went into Mesopotamia. You can see Mesopotamia on the map, and if you look to the left, you see Egypt. Egypt is where Jeremiah took the two daughters before he went to Spain, and then Ireland. However, while he's in Egypt, the children of Israel have already come into Mesopotamia, and it's here in a city by the name of Scythopolis, a small number of Israelites went back to Palestine, and they were known as Scythians. They returned and founded the small town of Scythopolis, and that town still exists today. Those were the only ones that returned to Palestine.

The rest of the people stayed in Assyria, which was Turkey. Look at the map on the previous page. Do you see Turkey up there at the top? This is where the children of Israel were taken captive: that land in the Mesopotamia Valley. When they were in Assyria, they basically became warriors. They were captives. They were used by the Assyrians as slave labor, and they were forced to fight battles for them, as unwilling mercenaries. So they were completely losing their identity over the decades and the centuries. They were worshiping Baal, and they had been evicted from Palestine by Yahweh for their pagan practices. They are without a land of their own for the first time since Yahweh gave them the Promised Land.

Now, starting at this point right here, as they lost their identity and they began to intermingle, they now began to be known by different names as they travel through the different territories. These new names were spoken and recorded in the languages of those who captured them, and historians have chronicled their locations and migrations. We'll talk about these new names as we go through this class. These Israelites were a migrating people that were constantly on the move. You could say they were gypsies. They would become known by a single new name, a completely different name than Israel.

Isayah 62:2 The Gentiles will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. You will be called by a new Name, which the mouth of Yahweh will name.

Whenever you leave, you're not going to know the name Israel anymore. You're going to be called different names. You are going to completely lose your name. That's why at First Harvest Ministries, when we teach you that you're an Israelite, for the first time in your life, you've learned your name again. Amen?

Isayah 65:15 And the names of your gods (elohim) will remain as a trap; test, to My chosen; for Yahweh our Father will slay you, but he will give His servants a Name; Yahweh, that will remain forever.

Wait a minute. His servants will be called by another name. This is a prophecy of them losing their identity; losing their name. Is anyone understanding? Are you seeing that the name Israel will be lost from among the nations where they were traveling? Read Hosea 2:1.

Hosheyah 2:1-2 Say to your brothers; Ammi, My People! Say to your sisters; Ruhamah; Having Mercy! 2 Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband. Therefore, let her put away her whoredoms from her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

Why did He take the name Israel away from us? Because we were no longer His wife. Israel is the name given by Yahweh to His people, and we had left and began to practice paganism, and therefore that name was taken away from us. But notice what it said in Isaiah 62:2: The Gentiles will see your righteousness. That's interesting, isn't it? Do you know why these people would be a righteous people and there would be a good quality about them so that all the nations would look upon these people and see a good people?

All the kings will see thy glory, but you will have a new name, or a new identity. It will no longer be the name Israel because you're no longer My wife as a national people. You now will take on different names, but the day will come when I will restore you back to your identity.

That's why the voice of Elijah is coming to do what? To turn the hearts of the children back to the fathers, and the hearts of the fathers, back to the children, meaning: You lost your name, but the voice of Elijah is coming to turn you back to the name of Israel. HalleluYah! Is anybody hearing me?

You're going to think you're an American. You're going to think you're a Christian. You're going to think you're a Baptist. You're going to think you're a Pentecostal. You're going to think you're all of these things, but there's going to come the voice of Elijah one day, and he's going to turn you back! To whom? The FATHERS: Abraham, Issac, and Jacob. Who is Jacob? ISRAEL. So Elijah is coming to turn you back to Israel, because you have forgotten your name. That's why you have to be baptized in the Name Yahshua. You're going back to Israel. You're going back to your name.

The picture here is the Pass of Dariel. It's in Armenia. This pass is very important. This is the passage where the Lost Tribes came through the mountains in Armenia. Isaiah prophesied that the children of Israel would have a second Exodus from Assyria. You can go find that in your Bible. After they went into Assyria, he prophesied that there would be a second Exodus that would not just be out of Egypt, but they would leave Assyria. The only way to leave Assyria is to leave through this passage. In those days, this was the only passage out of Assyria, and it's called the Pass of Dariel, but Isaiah called it a HIGHWAY that leads through the Dariel Pass.

As they came through that pass in Armenia, they now are a migrating people, just like they were when they came out of Egypt for forty years. What were they? Migrants! They were looking for their land. Here they are again. The more things change, the more they stay the same. Do you see what I'm saying? It's the PATTERN. It's the repeating cycle. What happened to them in Egypt is now happening to them again: another Exodus. And now they're going to wander until they find their Promised Land. My God, that's who I Pledge Allegiance to: their Promised Land!

Matter of fact, they became known as the Vikings. That's the name that they were called for awhile: Vikings. They were seafaring people. That was one of their promises from Jacob. We have witnesses and documents that these tribes maintained their traditions, and continued to exist as a people, but they forgot their identity as Israel. This was prophesied that they would forget who they were. Let's read that in Isaiah 29:10-12.

Isayah 29:10 For Yahweh has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes;

Oh oh. This is Israel. They're going to sleep. Yahweh said, "I'm putting you to sleep until I awaken you, and I'll awaken you with the voice of Elijah, but I'm putting you to sleep."

namely the prophets. He has covered; hidden, your heads: namely the seers, He's covering all of your eyes. Let's go to chapter forty-two of Isaiah. He's covering their eyes, and He did cover their eyes.

Isaiah 42:16 I will bring the blind by a way that they did not know;

Oh oh. I will bring the blind. Who is the blind? The House of Israel. I am going to bring them down a path through a way where they don't know who they are, where they're going, or what they're doing. Amen.

I will lead them in paths which they have not known.

Oh! I am going to migrate them so that they don't even know the people around them. This was all prophesied, saints.

I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things I will do for them, and not forsake them.

Once I send them down these paths that they don't recognize, then a great light is going to shine in the evening time. I've already preached about that evening shadow, the evening light. He said, "There is going to be an evening light shine, and all of a sudden, the crooked way will be made straight. I'm going to restore them to their land." Now read verse nineteen.

19 Who is blind if not My servant? And deaf like My messenger, whom I send? Who is blind as he who is perfect, or blind as Yahweh's servant?

You've got ears but you can't hear. You've got eyes, but they can't see. They won't even know their name.

Now go to the book of Romans, and let's see what Paul had to say about these blind people.

Romans 11:7-8 What then? That which Israyl has sought for, it has not obtained; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded. 8 Just as it is written: Yahweh has given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this day.

See Israel? I have closed their ears, blinded their eyes EXCEPT for the ELECT. I am going to awaken the elect of Israel. Not all of Israel. That's why some of your family is natural seed, but they're not awakened. There's your answer right there. Only the elect will be AWAKENED in the House of Israel. Read verse twenty-five.

25 I do not want you to be ignorant of this great secret, brothers, so that you may not be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part has come upon Israyl, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.

Oh, HalleluYah! The fullness of their kinsmen have come in. This blindness has happened to Israel for a time and a season, and a reason. Go to Hosea 3:4-5.

Hoseyah 3:4-5 (from the screen) For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without a teraphim.

This is important. Listen carefully. David's throne is never going down. However, these children of Israel will not be under that throne. Remember, I've got three migrations happening at one time. The throne is going through Jeremiah and Tea Tephi. The throne is being re-established in Ireland, but the children of Israel are over here, and don't know what's going on in Ireland. They are without a king or a prince because: I'm raising it up over here, but they don't know anything about it. Read the next verse.

5 Afterward, the children of Israyl will return, and seek Yahweh their Father, and David their king; and will reverence Yahweh and His righteousness in the latter days.

In what days? In the LATTER days; the last days of time. What are the last days? We're living in them! In these last days, there is going to be a people who are going to return, and they are going to seek after Yahweh. That's why when the British Empire was set up, they became known for spreading the Gospel all over the world, because it was truly the only throne besides David's that had been established on these principles, and these traditions. And these days are the days that we are now living in: when Israel returns.

Now, Salmasar was the king of Assyria that led the Israelites away. There is a book called the Book of Esdras. It is an apocrypha book; it is not scripture. But it is great at verifying some of these missing pieces. In the second book of Esdras 13:40-45 it said, "Those were the ten tribes that were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Hosea the king, whom Salmasar the king of Assyria led away in captivity, and he carried them over the waters so that they (the children of Israel, the ten tribes) came into another land."

So we know from this that they went over the waters. What waters is he talking about? Right there in Turkey. Look in Turkey at the top. They're crossing over the waters: the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers which the waters are still flowing today. So we know from second Esdras, that this is the path that the ten tribes took. They came down over the waters. To do that, they've got to go down south where the waters lead to the Persian Gulf. In the book of Esdras, he also records their determination to flee their captors by going north.

They took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a FURTHER country, where never mankind dwelt, that they might there keep their statutes which they never kept in their own land. Does anybody see the picture here? They were constantly going further to find a land where no man dwelt. I know a land called North America where very few Indians ever lived; a land where no man dwelt. They kept looking for a land further.

If you all will go read your American history, you'll find out why they left Holland. They said they wanted to go to a land where no man dwelt, where they could establish the Gospel on that land to be a light; a shining city on a hill. That is why Ronald Reagan used that phrase. He borrowed it from the Pilgrims. There was something in them. They wanted to keep their statutes; they wanted to keep their commandments.

Elder Morgan, go right ahead. "So is there proof that the Indians were here before that time, or was there no man here when the Israelites came?" Here's the deal. I believe the Indians were the Israelites. We know the Cherokee were calling Yahweh by His Name. Daniel Boone and other early explorers recorded that when they met the Indians, they were calling the Great Spirit YHWH. We have found writings in the Hebrew language from the Indian people. We don't know when they got here. We believe that Yahweh sent some of that Israelite seed to a land where no man had ever dwelt, and their Pilgrim brothers caught up with them later down the line, but they found the land where no man had ever dwelt.

There were no men here until the Israelites came. That's why the Indian people are such a spiritual people: because it's in their DNA. They always look for that Great Spirit. Now remember, they lost their identity too. They don't know that they're Israel. Is anybody following me? They don't know who they are, but Yahweh does, and He sent them to this land to prepare the way, and to be here: a land where no man ever dwelt. This thing is going to come together for you.

I want you to notice this picture on the left of where they entered the great waters of the Euphrates River by the narrow passages of the river. This is written in the book of Esdras. The Most High then showed signs and wonders as in the days of the Exodus from Egypt, and held still the flood until they were passed over. From II Esdras 13:40-45, "For through that country there was a great way to go—a year and a half. After they traveled a year and a half, the ten tribes came to a place called Ararat. Today it is called Armenia. Look at their travels now. They have come over the Great Water, and they have come to Armenia.

If you read Isaiah 11:11, you will find out that Isaiah prophesied their travels over a great highway.

Isayah 11:11 It will come to pass in that day that Yahweh will set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people, which will be left, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

These are all the places that they have traveled. Read verse twelve.

12 He will set up an ensign; sign or signal, for the nations, and will gather the outcasts of Israyl, and gather together the dispersed of Yahdah from the four corners of the earth.

Here's what I want you to notice: this is going to happen again. Remember prophecy is multilayered. This happened once. It's also going to happen again, but this is the shadow of what that fulfillment is going to look like. Everywhere they had traveled on their journey, some had gotten lost, some had married and stayed behind, but He said, "I'm going to gather them all together." This is the day that we are living in. So they did not disappear off the face of the earth, and are far from dying out. The so-called Ten Lost Tribes are still VERY MUCH ALIVE TODAY!!

Having established the identity of the Israelites of the Assyrian Captivity, we can now trace some of their other names which our ancestors called themselves, and by which other nations called them. Let's look at the words Scythians and Saxons. According to Genesis 21:12, the children of Israel would be called by the name of Isaac: In Isaac shall thy seed be called. Anyone see that word saac? In ISAAC shall thy seed be known or called.

What you see in this image is a letter to Esarhaddon. You can look it up on Google. In this letter, we will find where the Israelites are referred to by another name. They are referred to as Iskuza in that letter. Does anyone see Isaac in that name? Look at the word Iskuza. Do you not see Isaac in that name? In this letter to Esarhaddon, they are now called the Iskuza people, or the Isaac people. He says in the letter, if you translate Iskuza to Greek, you get Scythian. If you translate it to Persian, you get the Sacae. Now we're getting mighty close to the name Saxons. Hang tight.

In Hebrew, Isaac is pronounced Ish-Ak, with the accent on the second syllable. The Greeks and Persians dropped the first syllable and retained the second syllable. These same Sacae (also called Sacca or Sakka) were driven out of Media later that century along with the Mannai and Gimira (another variation of Cimmerians or Khumru) when Media and Babylon joined forces to overthrow the Asian Empire. We can trace them all through these battles. Then they went through the Caucasus Mountains. Some went west, along the southern shores of the Black Sea. Some went east, along the southern shores of the Caspian Sea, and then north along the eastern shores of the same sea until they came to the steppes of southern Russia.

These tribes are all over the place. Now they're known as the Sacae. One group of these Sacae stayed in the area of Media, outlasting the Assyrians, Medes, and Persians. As they came to Russia, they became known as the Parthians. The Parthians are very interesting. The Parthians created an empire that stretched all the way from Armenia to the Indus Valley. Their empire lasted way beyond the days of Christ. The Magi were Parthians.

Have you ever wondered why out of all the nations of the world, only the Three Wise Men wanted to travel to see Yahshua? Why does the Bible only tell us about three wise men from the east who followed the star? The Magi were Parthians. The Romans were never able to defeat the Parthians, and it was during a truce period between the Romans and the Parthians that the Magi were able to travel to Jerusalem. The Magi knew they were the kinsmen of Yahshua. That's why they traveled to Judea to see the King of Israel, when they saw the star.

This is a coin of the Sacae. The Sacae are now known as the Saka or the Suni, which translated, means Isaac's sons. The word Saki Suni was shortened to SAXON. These Israelites were named after Isaac, fulfilling the prophecy of Genesis 21:12. And now brothers and sisters, after all of this travel, after all of this journey, I want to show you something. Another variation of Scythian was Scuth, which is the basis of the word Scot, which is where we get Nova Scotia and Scotland. Both come from this name. Ladies and gentlemen, the Lost Tribes were prophesied to go to the islands of the sea. If you look at that picture, Scotland is the islands of the sea.

The first historical traces of the Scythians in South Russia is about 600 years BC, and about 145 years after they left Palestine. They are migrating towards Europe. From there, the Scythians moved northward toward the Baltic and west toward Germany. As the Scythians migrated westward, the various sub-tribes developed names of their own.

In a tract on the subject of the Lost Tribes, W.E. Filmer traces archeological evidence connecting Scythian artifacts with Hebrew artifacts. We taught you last week how the Hebrew language, and the Welsh language, and the English language are so closely connected. Here among the Scythians we find a Hebrew battle-axe in south Russia, and as we go on, we find Scythian burial mounds. These Scythian Israelites left a trail of burial grounds of their leaders, their kings, all the way to the Dnieper River as far as Kiev in Ukraine. So these people are traveling; they're on the move. The oldest of these artifacts are close to Romania, Armenia, and south Russia. Their burial sites spread as far as the Danish Islands and the Jutland Peninsula.

Now I want to quote Filmer, "Now Tacitus and Ptolemy name the region of the River Elbe and the base of the Jutland Peninsula as the places inhabited by the Angles and Saxons before they came to Britain." At one time, Great Britain was not the home of the Saxons. In our next lesson, we're going to pick up right there and bring you the evidence of how they moved into Great Britain, and the Islands of the Sea.

In the journey we've been on today, I've tried to show you how Yahweh designed every bit of this, and you are going to find out as we continue tracking these tribes, the evidence from the founders of America that they knew they were Israel. I'm going to prove that to you. Do you know what the first seal of the United States was supposed to be? If you'll go look up the first seal designed by Benjamin Franklin, it was not going to be that eagle. It was the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea.

Do you not know that we crossed another sea, just like they crossed the Red Sea looking for the Promised Land? They came across the water; we came across the water. HalleluYah! As you begin to see their journeys, they finally found their Promised Land. And now you might know why Satan is determined to destroy it, and why Yahweh is determined to keep it, and why He had to raise up a man to make it great again! God bless you.
