

Tracking The Tribes part 4

The Throne of David: Did it Survive?

By Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

The throne of David: did it survive? This is a key question. Until you understand Yahweh is involved in politics, then you won't get involved. You need to put that in your notes! That's key! Until you understand that Yahweh is involved in politics, then you will never get involved in politics. You will believe the lie of the separation of Church and State. You will believe the lie that the Church is not involved in politics, nor should we be. Ladies and gentlemen, the only way that is true is if Yahweh has changed. If He has changed, then Oh well. But if He has not changed, He created the first political government of Israel.

I'm going to do a quick test this morning. What was the first type of human government that Yahweh set up for His people? You should know this answer if you watch Professor Toto. What was the first type of government He set up? The first government that Yahweh ever set up was a REPUBLIC. Why? Because a republic is based on the rule of what? LAW. Yahweh did not originally set up a monarchy. A monarchy was what He did not want to set up because HE wanted to be king over Israel. So He gave a Constitution, or a Ten Commandments, or a Torah for His people to abide by. The LAW would rule the day.

However, they were not worthy of a republic. Let me explain something to you. A republic is not going to work very much longer in America. It cannot. Our Republic cannot survive. For a republic to survive, you must honor what? The Rule of Law. As our society becomes more and more lawless, we are begging for a dictator at that point. It's just like Yahweh. Yahweh does not want to be your dictator, and He will not be your dictator UNTIL you turn Him into one. Is anybody with me today? Alright.

He gives you the law to abide by. Just obey the law of the land, and if you do, you will never hear from the policeman. Did you know that? If you obey the law, you'll never have a problem with the law. You're never under the law until you Come under the law. The reason you and I are no longer under the Law of Yahweh is NOT because we're free from the Law, but because we OBEY the Law, and therefore we don't come under the handcuffs. We do not come under the POWER of the Law. It does not give us a judgment because we are walking in the Spirit. The Bible said, "He that walketh after the Spirit obeyeth the things of the Spirit."

The law is not your taskmaster unless you turn it into your taskmaster. Amen? So this is what Yahweh established as the first government: a Republic. The reason that America is a republic, is because Israel regathered in 1776 and reestablished the same form of government that she had in the Old Testament. Is anybody picking up what I'm putting down? Do you see how the more things change, the more they stay the same? Do you see, brothers and sisters, how ancient Israel has been regathered under the same form of government that we had in the wilderness? We are a Republic because of that.

When you're no longer a republic, then every man does what is right in his own eyes. He forgets the law. He forgets the law of the land. No matter if the law says you can't do a mail-in ballot unless you meet three qualifications; they don't care about that law. Don't try and find the truth, because nobody cares about the truth. Therefore, you're running out of a republic at that point, and your next step is going to be what it was for Israel: a man. Do you know why Yahweh did not want to give them a king? He told them, "If I give you a king, he's going to take all your money, he's going to enslave all your children, he's going to send you all to war."

Yahweh did not want that, but He did it as a lesser form of government. That brings us to King David. The throne of King David is so important that you know about this throne! It is imperative that you know about this throne, because if you don't, you will not understand America. When Yahweh called me to fight for America, I was the pastor of a small church in Mississippi. When the throne of David was established, if you don't know that throne, you will not fight for America. You will not understand who and what America is.

Ladies and gentlemen, today we are going to discover America, maybe in a way that you've never discovered her before. Let's start at Jeremiah chapter one, verse ten.

Yeremyah 1:10 See! This day I have set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant.

Now this is Yahweh speaking to the prophet Jeremiah. Everyone, notice it says one key prophecy. This Scripture is Key! It is pivotal in understanding the throne of David! Yahweh tells Jeremiah, "This is your commission. This is what I have called you to do in your life." Jeremiah was very young, he was anointed of Yahweh for a purpose. Read this verse again, and I'm going to ask a few of you to chime in and tell me the purpose of Jeremiah's ministry. When you read that verse again, tell me two things that Jeremiah was born to do.

Rule over the nations! Alright. Give me another specific. To root out and to pull down. Alright. That's one purpose. All Bible readers see what you have said: to tear down and root out. Here's what all Bible readers miss: to BUILD UP and PLANT! He's going to destroy nations, and he's going to build up or replant nations, new kingdoms. Did you know that it was prophesied that Jeremiah would tear down, pluck down, and then build up and plant? He would renew and reestablish kingdoms. That is his life purpose. That is his Great Commission.

Do you see how you read those verses, and all you saw was to tear down? Amen? That's how we do when we don't read to understand. He was called to tear down, and he did tear down. I'm going to show you where he tore down. I want you to notice the plurality in the verse in the word nation. It's not the word nation. Read this again, and notice the plurality in this verse.

This day I have set you over the nations. Over what? The nations (plural). Okay read. And over the kingdoms. Is it one kingdom or is it plural? Plural. Many.

Now brothers and sisters, there was only one nation in the Promised Land: Israel, Judah, Palestine. Yahweh used Jeremiah to pluck down Israel. How did He do that? It was Jeremiah who warned them over, and over, and over; warned them of their destruction. He begged them to repent. He warned them that the end was coming for Jerusalem; for the land of Judea. His calling in life was to tear that down. His calling was to destroy the rebellious kingdom of Judah.

Brothers and sisters, what you need to understand is at this pivotal point Jeremiah has fulfilled half of his lifetime calling. Half. The people and the kings of the Davidic line were overthrown in the Babylonian Conquest, and they were uprooted to Babylon. Read the verse again, and you'll see what this prophecy is talking about, with this knowledge. You will understand what this verse is talking about.

See! This day I have set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant.

So you are going to destroy Judah; Jerusalem. You are going to pluck it up by the roots. Your prophecy is going to do it. You're going to be involved. You're going to be there when I tear it all down. But guess what, Jeremiah? You're also going to be there when I replant it. HalleluYah! You are also going to be there when I take the Davidic line among the nations.
It is imperative brothers and sisters, that you follow this teaching today; that you understand your Bible!

Do you know the purpose of these Bible studies? It's not for us all to get together. I have one purpose. There's so many things, but I have one purpose. It is to give you so much FAITH in your Bible, so that you see that everything is in your Bible! You can trust it! You can stand on it. It has NO error at all! It is perfection! My job as your pastor is to establish you; not on Shane Vaughn, not on First Harvest Ministries, but to establish you on the Word of Yahweh to where you trust in it with your whole heart! HalleluYah! That's my ministry. When I'm dead and gone, this Word will stand. When you can't find another Zoom class, this Word will stand. You must place your confidence in the Word.

The reason I'm teaching you about all of this is so when you look at your Bible, you'll go, "Wow! I didn't know that! I've read about Jeremiah all my life, and I didn't know his lifetime calling was to tear down and build up nations. That's his life mission!" Brothers and sisters, I feel like I sort of have the same type of calling: to tear down your old religion, your old denomination, and to plant you in a new one, and pluck down and build back up. HalleluYah!

All true prophets of Yahweh pluck down and rebuild. That's what they do, and that's why we bought this land. I believe we are building something there. It's a planting of the Lord. It is a planting for you to have a place where you can gather together and be in unity in The House of Israel. So as we tear down, know that the Father never tears down your old religion without the plans of replanting you in greener pastures. Don't ever forget what I just told you. Here's the deal. The Father's not just tearing down your life. Many times you will feel that way. In 2009 when I went through what I was going through, it felt like a tearing down or a plucking up, or a destruction.

The Construction cannot happen until the Destruction. He's going to destroy everything that you once believed in, but it's not to leave you without anything to believe in. He's tearing that down to replant you into a new place, and that's what He is doing with Jeremiah the prophet. Everyone of you that He tore down your Christmas tree, but look what He gave you! Now you have more celebrations than you can even afford to go to. He didn't just take away your Easter bunny. He took it away, and then gave you so much more to truly celebrate. The Father never tears down without a plan to rebuild.

I hope you heard what I just told you. If you feel broken today, and you feel the destruction of the Father in your life, REJOICE, because you are about to be replanted. When you're transplanting a flower, I'm sure it feels like it's being plucked up to be thrown away. No. It's being plucked up so it can grow in a better place, and richer soil. The Father is tearing everything down that you once believed in, so that you can bloom in Truth! He is destroying the LIES, not to leave you hanging, but to leave you like a nail in a sure place. HalleluYah.

He's taken away the lies, but don't cry over the lies. And you will. You'll go through a time in your life when you're boo-hooing over the lies. But once you see the new land, you'll rejoice. I'll never forget that for the last few years I've been very worried in my mind because the church building that we're in belongs to a denomination that we're not a part of. Knowing that when my father-in-law is no longer on the earth—which I pray is a long time from now—at that time, that building becomes up in the air. We don't know what's going to happen. To buy it would be $500,000, so I'm praying, "Father, what are we going to do?"

Right when I'm worried about being plucked up, the Father says, "Look at these thirty acres we've got over here. You can build whatever you want out here. I'm not tearing you down. I'm not plucking you up. I'm replanting you FREE from all the denominational hold. Free from all of that." I would rather have church in a barn with horses and walk in the truth, than I would have church in a place that's so beautiful without truth. He tears you down to build you back up! Praise Yahweh! Glory, glory!

To build and to plant was Jeremiah's commission. The prophet Jeremiah did not fulfill the second part. Let's turn to Jeremiah forty-five, verse four. What did this involve, to build and to plant? We'll find out the context in this verse.

Yeremyah 45:4 This is what you will say to him: This is what Yahweh says: Behold, What I have built I am about to tear down, and what I have planted I am about to pluck up (that is, the whole land).

There's your context. So what was Yahweh talking about when He told Jeremiah that his job was to tear down, to pluck up? There's no question about what Yahweh is talking about. He tells you the context is. You are going to tear down the land; the physical land, or the physical nation.

Now brothers and sisters, if you don't believe that Yahweh is involved with nations—tearing them down, building them up—and placing leaders over them; if you don't believe in that kind of God, then you don't believe in the God of the Bible. You believe in the God that your mommy and daddy taught you, and that may not be the same God as the Bible God. The Bible God is the One I serve, and the Bible God establishes nations. He's involved in politics, and if Satan is good, he will get you out of politics, and convince you that's all of this world.

Once you understand you're going to be ruling this world, you get a little involved with what you're going to be ruling over one day. This is not dropping where I want it to drop. There's a reason Yahweh called you to go to a Trump rally. There's a reason Yahweh's called you to go to these rallies and save your nation. Yahweh PLANTED this nation, and if you don't care about it, you don't care about what He cares about! President Trump loves this country, and we must love this country.

If you don't love America, you don't love God! There, I said it, and it is what it is. We get the government that we deserve. He gave us what we deserved in 2020, and He said, "This is your window; it is a Biden window. This is a window for My people to wake up and let My servant teach you who America is. That way you will stand up and pray, and fight, and let your voice be heard; and you will defend what I've given you."

Do any of you remember when Yahweh gave Israel the Promised Land? Does anyone remember that the battle stopped when He gave their land to them? No! They had to fight everyday to stay and KEEP where they had been planted.

Israelites, AWAKEN to War! Yahweh gave us this LAND! This land is your land, this land is my land. This land is His land, and if you don't fight for it, you're not worthy of the land. I'm trying to tell you who America is. We're not involved in politics. We're involved in YAHTics, not politics. We're involved in Yahtics, and law; the RULE of Law. When we say, "You can't run an election like that," we are holding onto the rule of law. We're not fighting for our man. We're fighting for our Republic! We're fighting for the rule of law. Yahweh loves the Rule of Law!

Yahweh made the law, and that's why when Yahweh raised up Professor Toto, my theme—and I didn't even understand my theme—was a Revival of the Republic. Does anyone remember my theme? What is a revival of the Republic? It is a restoration of the rule of law. And folks, this is what Yahweh has called you to; to restore—not just our Republic, but the Rule of Law! He hates lawlessness, and if you don't hate lawlessness, you're not with Him. Lawlessness is when you've got a boy dressing up like a girl. That's lawlessness. We hate it! I don't care who doesn't like it. If you don't hate sin, you don't love Yahweh. And if you don't love America, you don't love Yahweh.

My father-in-law blessed my wife and I with this beautiful home we live in. We never paid a penny for this home. He built it with his own hands. It was Bishop Kendrick and his wife's dream home. Do you know that I am living in Bishop Kendrick's dream home? He built this after Hurricane Katrina. While I was out there last summer beautifying the property, do you know what I was doing? I was loving the land that my father-in-law gave to me. What if I allowed this land to become a junk pile? What if I didn't care about this land? I wouldn't care about my father-in-law.

I would be saying, "This means nothing to us." That's what you do when you don't get involved with America. Yahweh gave us this land! Those Pilgrims were the Lost Tribes of Israel! They had been under punishment

2,520 years, and at the end of their punishment, they regathered in a land that they had never known before; a land where no man had ever dwelled. Their brothers, the Indians, beat them here, and prepared this land and held this: a land that no man had ever known before. The Cherokee Indians are all Lost Tribes! They held this land! Then the Father gathered us all together at the end of 2,520 years. If you don't care about America, just go pop a squat somewhere, because the rest of us will take up your slack.

We have been rebuked by Yahweh—all the Israelite nations who have been called to this land. This is our window. I stood up on 2020, the day before the election, and said these words: "Tomorrow, America will get whatever president she deserves." Ladies and gentlemen, the Father raised me up to tell you WHO YOU ARE! Christians will tell you, "I'm not involved in politics." That's a coward! Easy to say, "I'm not involved in war." Honey, if they're trying to destroy your nation and you tell me that you're not involved, you've just told me that you are on the enemy's side. That's what you've just told me.

Do you know why Christians cannot get that mindset of fighting for the land Yahweh gave them? Because they are all going to heaven. See folks, until you get a Kingdom mentality, a Millennium mentality, you won't have that mindset. If you think you're escaping in the rapture—the biggest lie ever told—and you're going up in the big vacuum cleaner; the big rainbow vacuum cleaner, and being sucked up into the sky and getting out of here, no wonder you're not involved in politics. You're about to say, "Goodbye world, goodbye." But it's the total opposite: this land is YOUR land!

I'm going to say something right now that some of you will have to drink a lot of water to swallow it. It's not going to be easy for some of you, because we all love the Holy Land. I love it. I've never been able to go, but I love it. I'd go for historical purposes. But I'm reading the Word of Yahweh the other day, and there's a prophecy that Yahshua made that really stunned me a little bit. He said, "There's coming a day when you will no longer worship on this mountain, or in the Holy Land, or in Jerusalem. But you will worship on a new mountain called Mt. Zion: Spirit and Truth."

Don't turn the Holy Land into an idol itself. Some of you are standing in the Holy Land right now. You have come up to Mt. Zion. You are Sarah, not Hagar. You are of that NEW Jerusalem that we have already come unto! HalleluYah! Some of you are trying to get over to the Holy Land when you're standing on it right now! HalleluYah! I'm not against the Holy Land, but I read in the Word the other day that: there is ANOTHER land that I am preparing for The Lost Tribes, that no man has ever dwelt in or been before! Where is the Holy Land? I'm going to mess some of you up today. Lord have mercy!

Do you all know why they hate Trump when he won't shut up? I've got republicans who wish that he'd shut up about the election. Do you know why he will not? He's rooting out the corruption. He's reminding everyone the laws were broken, and what will happen if we don't stand up for the rule of law. For example, Professor Toto told every one of you to get out of those rabbit holes. I told you it was not with the Dominion machines. It was not with this and it was not with that. I told you the problem was breaking the law with the mail-in ballots. I'm in good company because Donald Trump said, "If I lose this election, it will be because of the mail-in ballots."

The laws were broken. We know they were. And, no sir, we will never stop letting you be comfortable knowing you broke the law, knowing you cheated, knowing that you violated this Republic. You raped her. You laid her down, ran roughshod over her, and you want us to shut up about it. That's like telling someone who's been raped, to go in their room and shut up. You can't do it. That's why they want Trump to shut up, because the truth is in the streets.

Truth is DEAD in this nation. There's only a small army that says, "No, sir! We love this Republic, we love the rule of law. We don't cry over lost elections. We cry over cheated elections. We don't cry because we lost. We cry because you didn't win, and you called yourself a winner. Somebody's got to stand up for truth. Somebody's got to say, "No! Time out; the laws were broken." In 2024 there will be time to rebuild what has been torn down. It's already being rebuilt right now. You can see it in this room. We have all got to stand for truth. If you don't, this world has no hope. Amen. HalleluYah!

Now let's talk about Jeremiah fulfilling the second part of his commission. The first part was to destroy. The second part was to plant. But I don't know anywhere where he ever planted a nation. It doesn't say so in the Bible really, but we know if he fulfilled the first part, he's got to fulfill the second part. Actually, the Bible does tell you. You just didn't realize it was in there. Jeremiah prophesied about David's dynasty, and we will soon see more of that prophecy.

Today you're going to discover a prophecy from Ezekiel that will answer the question of where this was planted; where did he plant. Right after Judah was carried away to Bablylon, there was a small remnant—I taught you this last week or the week before—that left the land of Judah. Let's read about that in Jeremiah 41:10, and then II Chronicles 36:11. We're going to find out about a remnant, a small remnant, that the Father preserved for the replanting. Let's read it.

Yeremyah 41:10 Then Ishmel made captives of all the rest of the people in Mizpah—including the king's daughters who remained in Mizpah with all the people, whom Nebuzaradan, the commander of the royal guard, had committed to Gedlyah son of Ahikam. These Ishmael son of Nethanyah took as captives, and set out to escape to the Ammonites.

Alright. Out of all those people who left Judah, who did you notice is in that group? The king's daughters; the Royal Line of David. They escaped Babylonian captivity, and you're getting ready to learn how they escaped. You're going to find out who they escaped with; who took them under their care and their charge. Ladies and gentlemen, look what you've got. You just tore down the garden that you plucked up a little twig from the garden. My, my, my. It's going to get beautiful today if you'll just hand tight.

Now let's read II Chronicles 36:11, and see that King Zedekiah was the last king of the Davidic throne, and he was very young.

II Chronicles 36:11. Zedekyah was twenty-one years old when he became king and he resigned eleven years in Yerusalem.

He was taken captive at thirty-two years old. He started reigning when he was twenty-one. So if he has two daughters, they are probably going to be very young; teenagers perhaps, or near the age of teenagers. They're at the age of marriage. In those days, a woman married when she began menstruating. She was qualified to get married at that age. So here we have two daughters of David. It's going to get interesting to watch how Jeremiah fulfills the second part of his commission. Brothers and sisters, let me show you this story and how it gets better and better.

Here's the problem: some people tell me, "Pastor, the royal line cannot pass through a daughter. It has to pass through a son." They don't believe that this royal line of David could have gone anywhere else through this royal line of daughters. You have a problem. It's called Torah. Let's go to Numbers twenty-seven, and verse eight. Let's see what the Bible says. I'm not worried about what you say. Let's see what the Bible says. Later on, if you want to read the whole chapter, this is Israel's laws of inheritance. Let's read.

Numbers 27:8 And you shall speak to the children of Israyl and say; If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

My, my, my. Oh, HalleluYah! King Zedekiah died with no sons. According to the Torah, where does the inheritance go? To the daughters. Amen. HalleluYah. King Zedekiah has got two daughters. David has two daughters left that escaped the destruction for the grace of David's throne. My, my, my. It's right there in black and white. What happened to the remnant? Let's read Jeremiah 42:1-19. I'm not going to read all those verses; it's quite lengthy, but you're going to find out where they all fled to Egypt. If you want to study that, you're going to find out that these two daughters fled to Egypt.

Let's continue, and go to the Encyclopedia Britannica. You're going to find out that King, or Pharaoh Apries was the fourth king of the twenty-sixth dynasty of Egypt. He succeeded his father, Psamtik II. Apries failed to help King Zedekiah, so when Babylon was destroying Jerusalem, the king of Egypt could have come and helped them, but he did not. Here's what he did do: after the fall of Jerusalem he received many refugees into Egypt. This just proves what is in those nineteen verses in Jeremiah. It tells us that a group of them including the royal seed of David escaped destruction and went to Egypt.

Let's read Jeremiah 43:6, and we're going to find out who was in that great pilgrimage.

Yeremyah 43:6 The men, women, and children, and the king's daughters—all those whom Nebuzaradan, the commander of the royal guard, had left with Gedalyah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, including Yeremyah the prophet and Baruchyah son of Neryah.

Whoa, whoa, whoa! Including who? Jeremiah the prophet. And who else? Baruch. Who was Baruch? Baruch was Jeremiah's ministry secretary. Who do we now have in the same party? Jeremiah, and the throne of David. The royal seed of the House of David is in whose company? Jeremiah the prophet. What is part of Jeremiah's life commission? To destroy and to replant. He's got the SEEDLINGS in his hands! HalleluYah! Jeremiah's got the roots of the garden of David. Before he left, he plucked up a twig. He plucked up two twigs of the Royal House, and brought them with him on his journey.

Your Bible is so perfect it's scary. Your Bible is so perfect. Everything is in your Bible: Everything. Let's read Jeremiah forty-five, verse two through five, and let's see who survived that great destruction of Jerusalem. Here's what we know before we read—Everybody, know this—we know without a doubt that David’s dynasty survived. We know that. Okay? Alright. Go ahead.

Yeremyah 45:2-5 This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says to you Baruchyah; 3 Because you have said; Woe to me! Yahweh has added further sorrow to my suffering! I am worn out with groaning, and I find no rest! 4 This is what you will say to him; This is what Yahweh says: Behold, What I have built I am about to tear down, and what I have planted I am about to pluck up (that is, the whole land). 5 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not expect them. For behold, I will bring disaster upon all flesh, says Yahweh: but I will let you escape with your life, wherever you go.

I will let you escape. Why? Because the second part of your ministry has never been fulfilled, and if I don’t let you escape, My word is a lie. Jereimah, I told you that you were going to tear down. I also told you that you were going to plant nations—plural. I’m not doing what I promised I would do, for Your sake. I’m doing it for My word’s sake. There are some of you blessed today; not because you deserve it, but because He promised it for His word’s sake.

Let’s read I Chronicles, chapter five, verse one through two. Here is where it gets interesting. We’re going to stop the story right there, and we’re going to rewind even further. We’re going to piece this story together with some other promises from Yahweh.

I Chronicles 5:1-2 The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israyl (He was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father’s bed, his right of birth as the firstborn was given to the sons of Yahseph, the son of Israyl,

Now hold tight. You’ve got to remember that verse. Highlight it in your Bible. Who did Israel’s birthright go to? It did not go to Reuben. He was the firstborn, but the first shall be last, and the last shall be first. The birthright that belonged to Reuben was taken from him, and given to two boys: Ephraim and Manessah. If you can find out where Ephraim and Manessah are today, you will find Israel.

What do you think happened to the birthright blessing? Do you think this stuff is just a mish mash and disappeared from the face of the earth, the birthright blessing? Could it just disappear? Does it mean nothing? Watch this carefully. Watch where we're going with this. Read.

therefore, the genealogy does not list him in accordance with his birthright. 2 Yet Yahdah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, but the rights of the firstborn belong to Yahseph),

Folks, if you don't get this right, if you don't get this in your mind, you'll mess up the whole Bible. The Jewish people do NOT have the birthright. They have the Davidic line. They have the throne, and they still have it, but they do not have the birthright. The blessings of the birthright do not belong to the Jews. They belong to the Lost Tribes of the House of Israel: Ephraim and Manasseh. That's why today, we're the most blessed nation on earth: we've got the birthright blessing that was given to the House of Ephraim and Manessah! HalleluYah!

Do you know the Jewish people barely have their own hometown? They have never carried the birthright blessing, ever. I'm about to teach you something. Those of you who are so infatuated with Judaism, they don't even have the blessing! I know a group of people who are walking under the natural birthright blessing that was handed from Israel to Ephraim and Manessah.

Your job is to trace Ephraim and Manasseh in Russia, and Europe, and find out where they land. You'll find that out next week. You find out where they landed: a land where no man has ever gone before; a land where no man had ever dwelled in before! That's why we're the most blessed nation in the history of the WHOLE world! We were under a punishment for 2,520 years. We were under a punishment of seven times, but the moment it ended in 1776, we formed a government to govern ourselves, and no nations have ever had the blessings of Manessah and Ephraim, ever!

Now you might know why you MUST be involved in America. I love that flag everytime I see it. Ladies and gentlemen, why do you think the color of that flag is red? It represents the red blood of the New Covenant that was given to The House of Israel. Brothers and sisters, listen to me. You didn't even know who you were. You've been walking around lost. You've been walking around not knowing who you are. You just happened to be born; you just happened to be who you are, but I'm telling you that history will tell you who you are. You'll find who you are. You'll quit walking around dumb and common. Dumb and Common. That's what I was.

Brothers and sisters, the Christian church makes you think when Christ came, all of that was done away with; all those blessings don't matter, none of that exists anymore. So do we throw it all away and just start at Matthew? No! We are just getting started then! We need to live everyday wearing that CROWN, knowing we were given the birthright blessing. We are those lost tribes.

Satan has gone to great lengths to hide this truth from us. He wants us to think that the Jewish people have the birthright blessing. They are blessed. They were given the kingly blessing to continue the line for the Tribe of Judah. But the one with the birthright gets a double portion; a double blessing. They walk around MORE blessed than all the other family members. They are given the birthright, and we have that. The birthright belongs to Israel, but the right to rule over Israel, belongs to Judah.

Genesis 49:9-10 You are a lion's cub, O Yahdah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion, he crouches and lies down; like the lion's breed, who dares to rouse him? 10 The scepter will not depart from Yahdah, nor a ruling staff; Lawgiver, from between his feet, until He comes to Whom tribute belongs, and the obedience of the nations are his.

KJV 10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shilo come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Now we run into a major problem. Here we run into the Christian conundrum. Christianity has ruined this verse. Do you know why they've ruined it? Because this is a promise to the Jewish people, or more specifically, not the Jewish people: the royal line of David. It's important that you understand that. This right to rule is not for the Jews. It is specifically for the Royal House of David, or the Tabernacle of David, as it's called in the New Testament. What's important that you understand, is when the Christians read that this promise lasts until Shilo comes, they think that is referring to the birth of Jesus Christ, Yahshua, but it's not.

If you'll read that verse again, it tells you NOT the FIRST Coming of Shilo, because the people were not obedient to Shilo at the First Coming. When did the people become obedient to Shilo? After the Second Coming. So read that verse again, and let's see which coming of Shilo it's talking about. Read it again.

The scepter will not depart from Yahdah, nor a ruling staff; Lawgiver, from between his feet, until He comes to Whom tribute belongs, and the obedience of the nations are his.

When do the nations become obedient to Shilo? At His Second Coming. According to this scripture, UNTIL He comes again, there will never fail to be someone sitting on David's throne.

Now listen to me everybody. Shilo came the first time, and the nations are not obedient to Shilo. But when He comes the second time, He'll rule with a rod of iron, and the nations will be obedient. That's when Shilo comes. According to that scripture, if there is not a lineage of David right now, and if there's not a throne of David, the scripture is wrong. Yahshua is NOT sitting on the throne of David. As a matter of fact, Yahshua is not sitting on ANY throne right now. He's sitting on the right side of His Father. I'm talking about earthly thrones. The Bible said He does not receive His kingdom or His dominion until the Ancient of Days comes and gives it to Him on the Great Sabbath Day. Christianity thinks Shilo has come.

Look at that picture. That's where the Tribe of Judah gets its ensign from. This is where mainstream Christianity messes it up. They believe this is referring to the first advent of Christ, but He has never sat on a throne and ruled. He has never had the obedience of the people. Therefore, there must be someone sitting on David's throne until Shilo comes, and then they can lay that crown at Shilo's feet. Now you might know why there's still a crown on the earth today. He just showed you that crown last week. That crown is still in existence!

I was reading the news, and out of all the royal families of the earth, not one of them still has a coronation. Wherever there is still a little royal family left, not one of them still has a coronation except for one. I wonder why that is. I wonder why when they go to get their crown, the choir is singing Zadok the Priest. I wonder why they're singing Hallelujah and I Was Glad (Psalm 122) which is the Jerusalem hymn for coronation, as they go down the aisle for 350 million people to watch. I wonder why! Because we still serve a God Who keeps His promises to His servant David. HalleluYah!

We have to understand these things! Let's go back and read II Samuel 7:11. Let's read quickly. I'm going to settle this all in your mind today. I'm going to show you from Yahweh's Word, and from history, where that throne is, where Ephraim and Manessah have settled. The verse in II Samuel below is Yahweh's promise to David.

II Samuyl 7:11 And as they have done since the time I appointed judges over My people Israyl, I will also give you rest from all your enemies. Yahweh also tells you that He will establish a house for you.

The word house should be dynasty; a royal house. There is going to be a royal house established for you, King David. Now read thirteen.

13 He is the one who will begin to build the House for My Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

What? For how long? Forever! I will establish the Royal House of David FOREVER! Until Shilo comes and sits on that throne. Until Shilo comes and takes the crown from that throne for the obedience of the nations. Read verse fourteen.

14 I will be his Father, and he will be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men.

Read the next verses.

15 But My love will not be taken away from him, as I took it from Shaul, whom I removed from before you.

16 Your house and your kingdom will endure forever in front of Me. Your throne will be established forever.

But they'd have us believe it just disappeared from the earth! It is established FOREVER! It isn't perfect, and I'll have to correct it with a rod of men. It will be involved with WWII and WWI, but it will be established forever until Shilo comes and takes that throne! Have you ever wondered WHY this throne has been preserved? So that everytime you look at it, you will be reminded that Shilo is coming to take that throne!

This was an unbreakable dynasty. A dynasty preeminent above all others. But what happened to that dynasty? And where is it today? There was an unbreakable promise. Let's read Psalms 89:3-4.

Psalm 89:3-4 Yahweh has said: I have made a covenant with My chosen; I have vowed to My servant David: 4 Your Seed will I establish forever, and build up Your throne to all generations. Selah.

...and build up. What's Jeremiah going to do? Plant and BUILD UP. It's in the Bible folks. It's plain as the nose on your face: I'm going to establish My own people in My land, and then I'm going to set up the line of David to rule over The House of Israel. It's going to happen until Shilo comes, and He can take back The House of Israel.

Psalm 89:27-29 And I will make Him My firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. 28 My mercy I will keep for Him forever and My covenant will stand fast with Him. 29 And I will establish his Seed forever, and his throne will be as the days of heaven.

My covenant I will not break, nor after the word that has gone out of My lips. Once I have sworn by My holiness; I will not lie to David: His natural seedline will endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me; it shall be established forever like the moon, even like the faithful witness in the sky. But somehow it just disappeared, and then we have the New Testament and can forget all of that. Maybe the gods you serve, but until Shilo comes, and the nations are obedient to Him, there still has to be a physical throne of David sitting over The House of Israel.

It was Satan's plan all along to rob that seedline of David. You wouldn't know who you were, we wouldn't know who Yahshua was. We would create Him into something He never claimed to be. It's called blasphemy, and I praise Yahweh that I was delivered from it. If you're more enamored by the Holy Land, than you are the land of America, you might have a problem.

Satan has hidden from you, your Great Inheritance. It was the Holy Spirit who placed in you this desire at this moment to stand up for America. As we come into the covenant mindset, it gives us dominion over ourselves, over our situations, our circumstances.

All of a sudden we know we have a covenant with Yahweh! He is obligated to His covenant if I'm walking in that covenant. The covenant is not me being perfect. The covenant is me knowing who I am, and walking in that knowledge and that sacrality. We're not like the world. We are called as the birthright to be good stewards. When we are, we're given dominion and the right to rule. The right to rule is dominion.

I'm sure you've heard of Dominion theology. What's so sad is they are clueless as to what dominion truly is. Dominion is not what they think it is. Dominion is the right to rule, and that right must be EARNED. You have to qualify for the covenant. I taught about this last night. We must want His heart, and His heart is His covenant. We must desire that covenant, just as He desires to fulfill that covenant in our lives.

Yeremyah 33:19 The word of Yahweh came to Yeremyah, saying:
20 This is what Yahweh says: If you can break My covenant of the day and My covenant of the night, so that day and night no longer come in their proper order, 21 Then My covenant with My servant David might be broken, so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, as well as *My covenant with the Levites, the priests who minister to Me.

Folks, if there is not someone reigning on David's throne today, the covenant is broken. I could stop right there: the covenant is broken, because Shilo has not come where the nations are obedient to Him. Until Shilo comes, there must be someone sitting on that throne. I want you to think about something. If the First Coming of Shilo was what the scripture is talking about, then why did Shilo Himself tell His apostles to go out and find the Lost Tribes of Israel? There was still work to be done for that scripture to be fulfilled. You've got to get that deep in your heart today.

It's time now for Jeremiah to fulfill his commission. He would be responsible for transplanting David's throne, and bringing it to the Lost Sheep of Israel. The very fact that Jeremiah was outside the country in the company of the king's daughters, the only successors that we know of to the Davidic throne, with a commission to build and to plant, should give us pause. This was no mere coincidence, especially when we consider the unbreakable covenant that Yahweh made with David.

Now, Yahweh overturned YAHrUSAlem. There's supposed to be three overturns. I'll teach you about those next week. Yahweh said that if the Jewish remnant had stayed in Judah, He would have used Jeremiah to replant and build up the kingdom right where they were. You can read about that in Jeremiah 42:10. But instead they went to Egypt, which was all in Yahweh's plan, where Yahweh had told them not to go, but He knew they were going to go. Yahweh's plan B is always plan A. Don't ever forget that. So now that they're being driven out of Egypt, where would Jeremiah go with the king's daughters, now that they're being driven out of Egypt?

They fled to Egypt, but now they're being driven out of Egypt. Where did they go? Did they hide out in a cave in obscurity for the rest of their lives, or do you think that they settled down somewhere, where their important status would be acknowledged by others? If so, was it somewhere that the prophet could fulfill his commission? Jeremiah gives us a powerful clue in Jeremiah 33:17. He had prophesied that from this time forward, David would never lack a man, a person, to sit on the throne of Israel. This is imperative that you understand.

Yeremyah 33:17 For this is what Yahweh says: David will never fail to have a man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel;

Oh, oh! Over The House of Judah or The House of Israel? ISRAEL. Wow. You would think that this person would be sitting over the Jewish people, but no, there will never be a throne ruling over Jerusalem. Not before Yahshua returns. They are going to sit on a throne over the Lost Tribes of Israel. It does not say Judah. From Jeremiah's time on, David would never lack a descendant to reign over Israel. It gets very interesting now.

Yeremyah 33:26 Then I will cast away; reject, the descendants of Yaaqob and David My servant, and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob; but I will cause their captives to return, and will have mercy on them.

He's going to have mercy on them. To make this all line up, we've got to go to another prophet who lived during the same time. He was a contemporary of Jeremiah, and he's going to tell you how all this is going to play out. Let's go to the book of Ezekiel. This was a prophecy that supposedly was never fulfilled, but the Bible I read has no failed prophecies. Let's read.

Yechezqyah 17:2-3 Son of man, present a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israyl,

So it's riddle time. Are there any Israelites sitting here today? Why is it a riddle? So that the church world won't understand it; so Satan won't even understand it; so that none of the princes of this world will understand this riddle... EXCEPT for those who are predestined to understand this riddle.

3 And say; This is what Father Yahweh says: A great eagle with great wings, long-pinioned and full of feathers of various colors, came to Lebanon, and took hold of the highest branch of the cedar.

Now hold on. This great cedar is The House of Israel. The eagle is the King of Babylon. He's going to come. Notice where he's going to take the branch from: the highest branch. Who is that? King Zedekiah, the king of Israel. Now read verse twelve.

12 Say now to the rebellious house; Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them; Behold, the king of Babylon went to Yerusalem and took its kings and its princes, and led them with him to Babylon.

So there's the interpretation that I just told you. The tree is Israel, the highest branch is the king of Israel. Now let's go back and read verse four.

4 He cropped off the topmost young shoot, and carried it into a land of trade; he set it in a city of merchants.

Wow. He's going to crop off the young twigs of this tree and transplant those twigs in the land of merchants, which was Egypt. This is your king's daughters. The young twigs were young, about thirteen years old. Now read verse thirteen.

13 And he took the king's seed; offspring, made a covenant; treaty, with him, and made him vow an oath to him. He also took away the mighty; leading men, of the land.

He took away Jeremiah, who was one of the mightiest men of the land, and he took these two young twigs, or daughters of the king. This transplant was prophesied. I'm going to take the king, but then I'm going to break off two young twigs, and transplant them in another land. I'm going to move My people to another land where no man has ever dwelt. That's what I showed you last week. It's in your Bible, by the way.

22-24 This is what Father Yahweh says: I will also take a shoot from the highest branch of the high cedar, and will plant it. I will crop off a tender shoot from the topmost branch, and will plant it upon the high and eminent mountain— 23 In the mountain of the height of Israyl I will plant it; and it will bring forth branches and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. Every bird of every wing will dwell beneath it; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell.

I am going to plant this young cedar in a land that's going to be the greatest of all lands—America First, by the way. Under its branches, immigrants from all over the nations—every bird is going to come under this majestic cedar. Every nation is going to flow unto it. You're going to have an Ellis Island where every bird is going to come under the care of this great, majestic cedar. I will plant it. That's what Jeremiah was prophesied to do: be part of the planting.

24 And all the trees of the field will know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, and exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree flourish. I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.

I brought down the high tree which is first—Judah. And I exalted the low tree which are the Lost Tribes of Israel. Is there anybody even comprehending what I'm teaching now? Do you see who you are? Do you see that you're the Great Transplant?! Do you understand that Yahweh has a purpose for America, and that He has an army that's going to stand up for America, and fight on her behalf, and declare truth until Shilo comes, and the nations are obedient unto Him? We are part of an end time move of Yahweh! It's bigger than any of us! That land over there, those of you people who are living on that land, do you know where your feet are standing?!! Yahweh's about to build a place where we can all gather and declare what He's doing.

While Yahweh is bringing Jeremiah and these tender twigs to Ireland—I'll get there next week—let's go back now, and not forget there's another group of people who 150 years earlier began migrating to Russia, all the way down the Caucasus Mountains. Do you not see that both of these stories are about the Connect. See? The Lost Tribes don't have a ruler over them yet. They don't have David's kingdom over them. That line is being preserved on the other side, and both lines are about to meet up. The throne of David is going to rule over the tribes.

Ladies and gentlemen, look at the image below. Here they go down through Germany, and Ukraine. I showed you last week how they got to Ukraine. I'll show you next week how they got to France. Then there's a little island in the sea right there next to Germany. Did you not know that the tribes of Israel were prophesied to be a seafaring people, and they would go to the Islands of the Sea? Did you know your Bible said that?

There's a book called The Annals of Ireland, and it talks about the Dan'ans; a highly civilized people, skilled in architecture and arts. They resided in Greece for a while. Then they met up with the Phoenicians. They first appeared in Ireland in 1200 BC, 85 years after the great victory of Deborah. There's something called the Tuatha de Danann, and it is the Tribe of Dan. As you study the Tribe of Dan, you're going to find out when they appeared in Ireland. The reason the Tribe of Dan is migrating to Ireland, is because Jeremiah and those two twigs are on their way to Ireland. The Tribe of David is about to meet up with the ones they're going to rule over.

If you'll read the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, it says, "In the time of Solomon, the Phoenicians were accompanied by the Hebrews, and they reached as far as England. England was therefore known to the Israelites, and they may have sought refuge there after the fall of their kingdom." That's from the Jewish Encyclopedia. They say these tribes knew about England, and that's where they were headed the whole time.

Here is what I want to explain to you today, and I'm bringing this to a close when I do. Why is this lesson important? Why am I teaching this to you? Why am I even talking about such things? I'll show you why. Because most modern Christians don't understand that Yahshua NEVER taught the Gospel of personal salvation. He taught NATIONAL salvation. He taught it to save a nation; a nation that you didn't even know existed because Christianity was so worried about you, that they never taught about y'all.

The focus of the Bible is NOT you! It's Y'all! That's why the Gospel of the Kingdom is something you must all do together as the Israelite nation. Yahshua taught the Gospel of the Kingdom. Most of His parables are about the Kingdom. This Kingdom will be established right here on earth at His Second Coming. The reason this lesson is so important is because before you found this truth, you cared nothing about what He cares about. You were trying to be saved.

He's trying to get all of the lost tribes saved. He's trying to get all of them ready for that crown you're looking at on here. He's trying to get you Crown-minded and Ground-minded. Before now, you were heavenly-minded. You were just trying to find your mansion in the corner of Glory somewhere. You didn't even want the throne. Satan used Christianity to destroy your inheritance. In His own words: Seek first the Kingdom, and sadly, before you found truth, you could care less about the Kingdom. You were trying to get you saved. You didn't realize you were part of an army that's going to rule the nations of this world. Satan sent Christianity to deceive you, to make you want to be a Christian so that you could go be with Jesus in heaven.

Beloved, we are a body fitly joined together, beloved. That's why I tell people, when you don't want to be part of the House of Israel, and do your own thing like the Messianics; like hiding in the living room and not wanting to be part of the larger work, it's not because you're a bad person. You don't understand that ALL these stones must be fitly joined together to create the Third Temple. The ministry of Christ was exclusively to the Children of Israel, and to no one else! If you don't get that in your mind, you won't understand your Bible.

He came NOT to redeem the world, YET, but to redeem Israel, so that we might be those descendants of Abraham who were destined to be, according to the birthright blessing, a blessing to the whole world! You can't tell me when the Jewish nation was ever a blessing to the whole world. They still aren't, because Shilo has not returned to bring peace to earth. Therefore, that promise has not been fulfilled except by one group of people; and I'll show them to you.

I'm going to read the words of Wolfgang Mozart. He said, "Indeed, we have been that blessing to the world. We have delivered to the world: science, technology, art, agriculture, architecture, classical music, the Magna Carta, the English Bill of Rights, and the Bible." We have delivered to the world: automobiles, railroads, air travel, space travel, indoor plumbing, sanitation, medicine, computers, radios, televisions, Christian jurisprudence; and we've delivered to the world the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution of the United States of America. It is us who have given to the whole entire world!

Our people have blessed the nations of the world. You know what? Satan wants you to hate us. He wants to remind you of slavery. He wants to remind you of the bad things we have done. Israel has always had bad in it, but she's always been a blessing to the world. We are the very ones who ended slavery. We didn't institute it, but we ended it. Slavery existed all over the world until 1776. Two years after that, it was our people who sent our sons to DIE to end the plague of slavery from the face of the whole earth. Our people did that.

You better get this right! They've got you hating America because of the sin of slavery that existed from Genesis. You better quit letting those people make you anti-America. It's America that's blessed the whole world! We send our money to every nation on earth to help their poor; to help those in need. America is the greatest nation on earth, and if you don't believe it, you're in the wrong classroom. You're not going to get me to feel ashamed for what they did, and we ended. Do you not know that there was slavery in the days of Abraham? Do you not know Abraham had slaves? Nobody wants to hear this truth because you've been so brainwashed.

Do you not know what colonialism did? It turned nations into civilized societies that before they came, had no education, no school systems; had nothing; had no knowledge of Yahshua Christ. Who do you think gave the Bible to the world? It was our people: The Lost Tribes of Israel. Right now in South Africa, it was our people. South Africa has Lost Tribes of Israel all through Africa, because we spread that seed all through Africa, and over the whole world! When I hear people put down Great Britain because of some mistakes they've made, I tell them, "Do you not understand that their empire brought civilization to the world?" Hong Kong is civilized today because of Great Britain. You better quit believing these newscasters, and you better believe THE NEWSCASTER that cast the news of our GREATNESS from the beginning!

I'm so tired of you running America down when we are the breadbasket of the world! You better know who you are, or they'll convince you that you're bad. We have been a light; the shining city on a hill, and if they convince you of anything else, you're listening to the voice of demons. As much as I love my Jewish brothers, and I do with all my heart, they have not fulfilled the birthright promise of being a blessing to the world. When Shilo comes, then they will be part of that great blessing, but it's not the blessing; it's the scepter. They delivered the KING; we delivered the KINGDOM.

Yahshua said in Matthew 15:24, "I have not come for anyone except the Lost (exiled) Sheep of the House of Israel." That's a powerful scripture that you need to put in your repertoire. He came as the Kinsman Redeemer of the Tribes of Israel. Why did He do that? Because it was only the Lost Tribes who had the Law at one time. Only True Israel was given the Law at Mt. Sinai by Moses. Only the Israelites needed to be redeemed for breaking that Law.

The world didn't have the covenant. The world didn't have the Law. The world didn't have the promises. The Lost Tribes did. They had to be redeemed back to the Law, back to the commandments of Yahweh, and they would do that through Yahshua. He came and took our sins away so that

WE could carry the Gospel to the rest of the world, while always remaining a separate and distinct nation.

That is where we went to: ALL over. One day if you'll find Holland on that map. One day our people who loved truth, gathered in Holland. That is where our forefathers got on a boat to cross the Red Sea, if you will, again, and look for the Promised Land, because they were trying to get to the Promised Land when they went through Russia and Ukraine. They were looking for a city, they were looking for a land that Yahweh had promised to transplant them into. They went to the United Kingdom, Ireland. That's where they found their throne. And when they went to America, they were not leaving the throne; they were not running away from the throne.

That's why Americans today are so infatuated with that throne. When we see it, we still feel connected to it. Ladies and gentlemen, we are being prepared for the regathering that happened in 1776, and for, ultimately, that RESTORATION, which will not happen until the Wedding Feast of the Lamb.
