

Tracking The Tribes part 6

Migrations of Israel

By Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

We want to go straight to the Word this morning. We have a lot of things to dive into; a very, very good lesson. Before I pull it up and begin to teach, I want to remind you of why I'm teaching this series called Tracking the Tribes; the purpose of it. I want to give you the forest if I can, not the trees. I want you to see why I'm taking that path to teach this. I believe we are living in an hour where we must know who America is. We must understand who we're fighting for; what we're fighting for. We must know who we are as a national people. We must understand our history to understand our future.

I know that so many Christians don't know who America is. For the past five weeks—this is week number six—I have taken you from the beginning of this story in Genesis forty-eight, and then I've brought you, and I've shown you the tribes traveling through Russia and Ukraine. I've brought you and showed you them coming to Germany. I've shown you where these ten tribes have been going. I've also been tracking another girl, another group of people coming out of Jerusalem, and we've been tracking these two caravans for five weeks. The question is: Today, where do these two caravans that have been traveling for 2,000 years meet up? Where do they finally come back together?

That's the story of America and Great Britain. You need to know this story. When you know this story, then you understand why Yahweh has to raise up a man to preserve what belongs to Yahweh. Many of you make a great mistake—I used to make it—in believing that Yahweh's plan for the end times is that little nation called Israel over in Palestine. That's some thinking you will have to readjust. That's some thinking you're going to have to change. I dare say to you, I'm going to prove today that America is the land wherein the Tribes of Israel now dwell, as well as many other lands, but this is the Headquarters of those Lost Tribes, beginning with the Native Americans.

So if that's the case, why are we so focused on the LAND, when we're living in the LAND? That is a problem with John Hagee, Perry Stone, and all of these television preachers. They have it wrong. I hate to be saying that, but their focus is on the land of Palestine, when you're going to find out today that Yahweh, when He removed His Glory from the Temple in Jerusalem—whenever He left it desolate, He made a promise that He would give us another land; a land where no man had dwelt before. It's in the book of 2 Esdras, which was in your original Bible before they took it out. It was in the King James Bible.

There is a prophecy about us going back to the land, but it would be a land that was totally different from the land of Palestine. It would be a NEW land that is totally different; a Promised Land where no one had ever gone before. That's where we're picking up today, and I want you to understand why this is the most important lesson you will ever listen to. This series is Mind Altering, and I don't use that for hyperbole. When you begin to know WHO America is, then you know that we are a unique people among all the nations of the world. Now you will know why Yahweh raises up men, and anoints them to repair America; to restore the breach in the wall that I taught about last night.

Where does it all begin? That's what we're going to go over today, and see if we can bring some clarity to this subject. Let's get started by reading 2 Esdras 13:40-42.

2 Esdras 13:40-42 Those were the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom Salmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so came they into another land. 41 But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, 42 That they might keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land.

The waters spoken of in this verse would be the River Euphrates. They came into another land. These are the tribes that we're tracking, folks. I want you to read that again. Out of ALL the nations of the world, which one was reserved, where we can honestly say that no man had ever dwelt? America! The Father sent the Native Americans here first to hold the land. They were Lost Tribes. Do you know what they called the Great Spirit? Yah wah. Sam Houston wrote in his book that they were calling the Great Spirit Yah wah. They were holding a land that was a big land. So if Yahweh's focus is the land in Palestine, then why did He say what He said in II Samuel 7:10? Let's read that.

II Samuyl 7:10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israyl, and I will plant them so they can have a home of their own, and be moved no more. The sons of wickedness will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning.

This is an interesting scripture that I've never heard another minister teach on. I have a question, folks. Has that prophecy ever been fulfilled in the land of Israel? Have they ever not been attacked? I'm waiting for somebody's light to click and for them to say, "That couldn't be the land of Judea because they've been attacked every day that they have been there. Yahweh said, "I'm going to take Israel." NOT Judah—Israel.

He said, "Some day, somebody is going to get this and know who America is. I'm going to take Israel and scatter them, and then I'm going to finally bring them into a place where nobody will ever dare attack them, because they are going to be so mighty and powerful. I'll give them their own land that no man has ever dwelt in." HalleluYah! When you begin to see who America is, all of a sudden you become a True patriot, and truly become a warrior for this nation. So today, I'm going to start backtracking a little, rebuilding the story for you. Today I'm teaching in depth. You'll have to follow closely so we don't get lost along the way. Amen. Let's take off on this journey. I spent all that time explaining to you why this lesson is so very important.

Until this point, the Lost Tribes have been tracking all over Europe, seeking the place where no man has gone before—a new land. It sort of sounds like Star Trek: strange new worlds; a new land. However, let's not forget the other part of the story. While these tribes are tracking all over Europe, there is another caravan that is not with them—The Royal Line of the House of David. They have been on a separate journey.

Remember that the Lost Tribes left 150 years before destruction fell on Jerusalem. In today's lesson, we are going to find the point where these two groups COME BACK TOGETHER. These two lost families will find each other. What I want you to keep in mind is that there must be someone to RULE over the Israelites. Who will rule over the Israelites? The House of David. Let's read Genesis 49:10.

Genesis 49:10 The scepter will not depart from Yahdah, nor a ruling staff; Lawgiver, from between his feet, until He comes to Whom tribute belongs, and the obedience of the nations is His.

So according to this scripture, the throne of David will NEVER die, and there will always be someone of his lineage sitting on that throne until Shilo comes; until the nations submit to the Throne. That's a prophecy. If that prophecy fails, here's what you need to do with your Bible: you need to flush it down the toilet. I'll say it another way. If that prophecy fails, your whole Bible is a lie. It's a prophetic promise from Yahweh given to David's lineage, that his throne will never die out. Ever. Read it again.

Until all the nations are obedient to Christ, there's got to be a scepter and a rod. Did anyone watch the last Coronation? What was placed in the king's hand? A scepter and a rod. There was also something between his feet—the stone of Jacob—and until the nations bow down to Yahshua, this throne must remain alive. I want you to think about it, my friends. There is NO other royal family on earth that still has a Coronation. Did you know that?

Why is this one still here at the end of the age; right before Yahshua comes? Why is there still a scepter and rod in his hands and the stone of Jacob between his feet? That throne does not have any power anymore, so it really doesn't serve a purpose, EXCEPT a prophetic purpose for you Israelites who understand what it's telling you. It's telling you that anything your God promises you, it will happen exactly the way He promised it. Amen!

So until Shilo comes, there must be that throne. Now let's turn to II Samuel. Remember that there are two separate blessings to the Twelve Tribes of Israel. One tribe gets the scepter blessing. What is the scepter blessing? The right to RULE over all the tribes. Remember, the Israelite people—you and I—naturally don't have the scepter message. We have the financial birthright blessing. However, if you've got Lost Tribes, there must be someone with the scepter mantle who will eventually rule over the tribes again. That royal line of Judah has to rule over Ephraim. We don't have the scepter blessing. We have the birthright. We are getting ready to trace the lineage of David, a seed of David, sitting on the throne. We'll get there by the end of the lesson.

II Samuyl 7:16 Your house and your kingdom will endure forever in front of Me. Your throne will be established forever.

Let me ask you all a question. It says, "Your house and your kingdom will endure forever. Your throne will be established forever." My question to all of you Bible believers is: If that throne is not in existence today, is that not a failed prophecy? How much plainer does it need to be? I don't know how else to read that verse of Scripture. If there is not a lineage on it today, then that throne is not established forever. We know Yahweh's Word cannot fail!

To understand all of this, guess what we have to do? We have to rewind even further. We've got to go further back, and you have to learn a story today. We are going to find that story in the book of Genesis 38:27. Now it's going to get very deep. You've got to stay with me and learn about two twins by the name of Zarah and Pharez. You must comprehend this story. As we read this story, you are going to find two twins. It will help you understand who America is, and who the Judah line is. Otherwise you'll think that the state of Israel, IS Israel. Let's read.

Genesis 38:27-30 When the time came for her to give birth, behold twin boys were in her womb. 28 As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so that the midwife took a scarlet thread, and tied it on his wrist, and said; This one came out first. 29 But when he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out, and she said; How did you break out? And he was named Perez; that is Breaking Out. 30 Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out; and he was given the name Zerah; that is Scarlet.

Okay. Now let me break this story down for you. This is really where it all begins. It is from these two boys that the Royal House of David emanates; specifically from Zarah. Let me explain it. There are twelve tribes of Israel. The fourth son of Israel was Judah. Judah had two sons: Zarah and Pharez. One of these boys is going to produce King David. When they were about to be born, the midwife knew there were twins in the womb, so she prepared a scarlet cord so everyone would know who the birthright would go to. She knew the minute that first baby popped out, to wrap that scarlet thread around his hand so everybody could mark the firstborn.

Now Zarah means scarlet in Hebrew. He put his hand out of the womb first. The midwife wraps that scarlet cord around his hand as he is coming out, and says that he was the firstborn, but guess what Zarah did? He pulled his hand back in the cervix. Then his twin brother Pharez was actually born first, therefore breaching his brother Zarah's birthright, so he was named Pharez, which means breach in Hebrew. Is everybody with me so far? Pharez, who took the birthright from his brother Zarah, and he carried the tribal family name of Judah. It is from Pharez that King David comes forth.

Remember that Pharez is the brother who caused the breach, and it is from him that the kingly line of David comes. I want you to notice what the emblem of Pharez was: an amber lion standing on its feet with a crown on its head. Does anyone know where that emblem still exists today? Great Britain. That was the Pharez emblem; the amber lion. Maybe you remember that on all the regalia of Great Britain there's actually two lions. One is amber or golden, and one is scarlet. Now hang tight with me. It's going to get very interesting but you have to follow closely. You are looking at the Pharez emblem; the royal line.

But there's another line by the name of Zarah. Zarah had what color hand? Scarlet. He lost the birthright to rule, and he went into exile. All of his descendents went to Spain, and they built the city called Zaragoza, which still exists to this very day. Zara means the Stronghold of Zarah. The RED LION is their emblem because of the scarlet thread. That's the tribe or bloodline of Zarah. They are twin brothers and they both are Jews; they both come from Judah, but separate family lines. Did you ever wonder where all this regalia came from? Let's leave Zarah and Pharez and fast forward now, and let's go to a time when Jerusalem has been destroyed. A hundred fifty years earlier the Lost Tribes went throughout Europe, but the tribe of Judah stayed in Jerusalem.

The last king of the Davidic line was King Zedekiah. Remember, there will always be someone sitting on that throne, but we run into a problem. The prophet Jeremiah was sent to King Zedekiah of Jerusalem, to warn him to return to the covenant of God, or God would punish the two-tribe House of Judah. That's something you need to remember. There are two tribes in the House of Judah. Jeremiah warned King Zedekiah that if they broke the covenant, God would send King Nebuchadnezzar to destroy them. Zedekiah ignored the warning and put the preacher in prison. Nebuchadnezzar sent his army and laid siege to Jerusalem. The inhabitants became so hungry, they ate their own children.

When they seized Jerusalem, what did Nebuchadnezzar do? He actually released Jeremiah from prison, and gave him free reign. Zedekiah was descended from the Royal Line of David—the Pharez branch. Keep that in mind. All of his sons were killed, and he died in prison. Let's stop there and put it all together.

King Zedekiah is the last of the Pharez line after his sons are brought before him and killed in front of him, and then they gouged Zedekiah's eyes out after he watched the last of the Pharez line destroyed. Satan did that to try to circumvent the prophecy that there would always be someone sitting on King David's throne. So if you want to stop David's throne, you kill Zedekiah, and then you kill his sons. But as I taught you a few weeks ago in the Torah, if there are no sons left, the inheritance goes to the daughters. That is not what Satan was depending on. So how do we find the missing link to this story? We have to now jump over to the book of Ezekiel to find the missing part of the story. This is a prophecy about Nebuchadnezzar destroying the Davidic line on the throne.

Yechetzqyah 17:4 He cropped off the topmost young shoot, and carried it into a land of trade; he set it in a city of merchants.

Read verse twenty-two and I'll finish the story.

22 This is what Father Yahweh says: I will also take a shoot from the highest branch of the high cedar, and will plant it.

Now hold on now. Nebuchadnezzar thought he had cut off the young twigs—the sons of Zedekiah. That was his move, but Yahweh was the master chess player. He took those young twigs, and transplanted the rest of the twigs to the land of traffic, which was Babylon. Yahweh did something Satan was not expecting. Yahweh said, "I am taking the highest branch." What is the highest branch? The cedar represents a nation. The highest branch is the royal family. What will I do? I will set it. I will set the royal branch somewhere else. I will take the branch and transplant it.

I will crop off a tender shoot from the topmost branch, and will plant it upon the high and eminent mountain.

I will take a tender one—a female—one that the devil was not expecting, and I will plant her on a high mountain. I'm going to show you that high mountain in a minute. Read verse twenty-three.

23 In the mountain of the height of Israyl I will plant it; and it will bring forth branches and bear fruit, and will be a majestic cedar.

I will place her over Israel. I will place the tender branch on a high mountain, which is government. I will place her over My people Israel.

Every bird of every wing will dwell beneath it; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell.

Every bird means every nation; a worldwide empire. Does anybody happen to know what the greatest empire in the history of the world was? Where every fowl of every nation submitted to that great cedar tree? Great Britain. Folks, you've got to know your Bible or you won't even know what world you live in. Amen. Read verse twenty-four.

24 And all the trees of the field will know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, and exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree flourish. I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.

He brought down the high tree, and He exalted the low tree, and He dries up the green tree, which is the two houses of Judah. Judah was the high tree. He said, "I'm about to bring down Jerusalem and Judah." Remember, the first shall be last, and the last shall be first. Zarah did not have the blessing. The Lost Tribes were lost for decades while Jerusalem was being blessed. He said, "Now I brought that down and I'm about to exalt the Lost Tribes of Israel, and I'm going to place these nations under their care." The Bible said it's not for the world to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God. It is only for those to whom it has been revealed. If we ever understood how blessed we are! Yahweh has honored us with this information.

Now let's go forward. Historical records and the book of Jeremiah indicate that at the fall of Jerusalem in 588 B.C., the prophet Jeremiah who had been released from prison, escaped to Egypt with a princess by the name of Teia Tephi. Teia Tephi is now the bloodline carrier of the throne of David. This uprooting and replanting in another country done by Jeremiah, fulfills the prophecy through Ezekiel where God promised to exalt him that is low (line of Zarah) and abase him that is high (line of Pharez). Remember the low line is the Zarah line, and remember the name EOCHaidh. It's going to be important when we get to Ireland.

Eochaidh comes from the line of Zarah. Now there is a book called The Book of Tephi. I have bought the last available one throughout the whole world. It cost me a pretty penny to get that book. It is now a classic in my library. Invaluable. In this book, Teia Tephi writes her story. The daughter of the king of Jerusalem, who escaped from Jerusalem in 588 B.C. with Jeremiah, she writes in the book about that escape.

In The Book of Tephi, here's what she tells us in her writing: in her journey with Jeremiah, she talks about two things she brought with her—the Lia Fail, Stone of Destiny, and The Ark of the Covenant from Jerusalem to Ireland. She came through Egypt, and stopped at Gibraltar. When she gets to Gibraltar, guess what she finds? The tribe of Gad was living in Gibraltar. When she got there, guess what they did to Teia Tephi? They crowned her queen of the Israelites. Why? They knew her bloodline. They knew who she was. Jeremiah was with her. She tells the story of how she went to Spain, then

In her book, she makes a most interesting prophecy. I will tell you what that prophecy is. She predicts that she would be resurrected from her tomb on the Hill of Tara in Meath, Ireland, and that Christ would call her forth from the grave, and He would be inaugurated King of all of Ireland, and all the world on the Stone of Destiny, at Tara. And at this time, He would also bring peace and unity to the whole world. That is what she wrote in her writings: that she brought with her, the Stone of Destiny, and the Ark of the Covenant, and hid them in Ireland. This is all bringing us to a greater story. When you read this Book of Tephhi, you will be saying, “My word. My word. My word! This is David’s daughter: this is the throne of David, still in existence to this very day.”

This picture on your left is a picture from her book of her travels with Jeremiah. There she is, the little girl—that tender twig in the front of the boat—and there is Jeremiah next to her. This is a picture of her travels from Jerusalem. Here is what she says in her book: that during the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, Jeremiah hid with her under the Temple that was built by Solomon, in a cave where the Ark of the Covenant was hidden, along with Jacob’s Pillar Stone, which is King David’s Throne of Israel.

Folks, I want you to know that at the last Coronation, the only thing I looked for was to see if that stone was under that throne. Because this is the very stone upon which Jacob laid his head. I want you to think about this folks; think about this. Try to wrap your mind around it. Here is Jacob who will become Israel. He lays his head down on this stone that is in the ground with just some of it sticking up. He props his head against it, maybe arches his back up and lays his head upon it. While he is there, he has a personal visit from Yahweh Himself. Up and down the ladder, the angels were going. Does anyone remember? Alright.

Jacob wakes up and finds a bottle of oil, and what does he do to that stone? He anoints that stone, and consecrates it as HOLY. Then he calls that stone Bethel, which means The House of Yahweh. He calls it The House of Bethel; The House of Yahweh. Now I want to ask you a question. If you were asleep in a bed tonight and Yahweh came and brought thousands of angels to that bed, and you had this kind of experience, do you think you're ever going to leave this bed to sit somewhere? No. Do you think you'll let it get sold in a garage sale somewhere? No! All of a sudden, it becomes something very special in your life.

Ladies and gentlemen, when Jacob left that place, he had to have brought that stone with him as a memorial of who they were, so that stone would always remind them of where it all started. The reason we know this is because when Jacob was dying in Genesis 49:24, the man who put his head on the stone, now is giving out blessings at his death.

Genesis 49:24 But each one's bow would not bend, and their arms were weak, because of the hands of the Mighty One of Yaaqob; because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israyl; because of your father's Father Who helps you; because of the Almighty Who blesses you;

The Rock of Israel. At this moment, notice who He's giving this Rock of Israel to. In verse twenty-two, it will tell you who He is giving it to. He is giving this Rock of Israel to Joseph, and it is from Joseph that we get Ephraim and Manasseh. Ladies and gentlemen, He gives the Stone of Israel as an INHERITANCE to Ephraim and Manasseh. That is their inheritance. That stone will be their shepherd. It will remind them of that pivotal moment.

Now you might understand why when they went into the wilderness, the water had to come from this stone. He told them the rock. Wait a minute. There were thousands of rocks in the wilderness. Moses didn't give any directions. He said, "Meet me at the ROCK." That's why when he hit that rock, Yahweh cursed it, because that was the Stone of Israel. That was the Shepherd Rock. That was the Rock that followed them in the wilderness. It followed them wherever they went! What is so sad is that the Christian Church thinks that Rock was Jesus. I'll show you why they think that. Turn to I Corinthians 10:4 and let's read.

I Corinthians 10:4 And all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of the spiritual Rock that followed them in time, coming hundreds of years later—and that Rock was the Messiah.

I want to show you how you can misread your Bible. There was a Rock that followed them. It literally went everywhere they went, but there is a problem. Brother Vaughn, that wasn't a physical rock. That was a preexistent Christ that followed them. There is one problem. It's a mistranslation. It does NOT say that the Rock was Christ. The Rock was Christos. The word Christos means ANOINTED. That Rock was anointed by Jacob; it was not Jesus Christ. It was anointed with oil! How are you going to turn Jesus into a Rock? There were a million Yahshuas in Jerusalem, but only ONE was the Anointed One! There were a million rocks in the wilderness, were there not? But there was only One Rock that followed them, because that Rock was sacred. It had been anointed by Jacob.

You've got to know these things or you won't understand your Bible. It was a pattern; the algorithm, and the water came from the Rock because Yahshua became our Shepherd. But until He was our Shepherd, that Rock was the Shepherd in the wilderness. It was where they gathered. It's where their water came from. It's where they stood and anointed their kings on that Rock. Solomon was anointed on that Rock! HalleluYah! Glory! Let your eyes open now. Treasure this TRUTH! I'll tell you what I'm going to force you to do right now. I want to look at that scripture again, and ask you who gave them permission? I'm going to show you how mine reads.

And they all drank of the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them; and that Rock was Christ.

Who gave them permission to put that word there? In your Blue Letter Bible, just scroll down and click on the word Christ, and the first meaning of Christ is anointed. It is an epitaph of Jesus, not Jesus Himself. Do you see what happens when you don't know how to read your Bible? The lying pen of the scribes strikes again. So if you ever want to know what a word really means, click on the root that it comes from. Christos comes from this root: G5548. Let's trace the etymology, and we find that Christos' first meaning is to anoint. It means to anoint, to consecrate; through contact, to smear or rub with oil: a descriptive word, as in Matthew 16:18: Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; which is also misunderstood. Upon the anointing; the scarcity of Who He was, we would build His Church.

Honestly, when people believe in the preexistence of Jesus, that is the scripture that they throw at me to prove that Jesus preexisted, because that rock was Christ. We've had the Rock for 4,000 years. Remember, Teia Tephi came to Ireland before Christ was even born, so therefore, the True Rock had not come, so Yahweh is allowing the old Rock to be preserved as a testimony of the Coming Anointed One. There's nothing wrong with using the word Christ in that scripture in the Bible, as long as you understand that Christ is not Jesus' last name.

Teia Tephi brought that Rock over 500 years before Christ was born. People don't understand that your Bible is PERFECT from cover to cover. You can trust your Bible. It is the Word of Yahweh. It is the only bedrock you will ever stand on. Everything else is sinking sand. Everything else is a lie. I preach to you today to NEVER doubt Yahweh's Word EVER! Study to show yourself approved unto Yahweh! Glory! You've got to build it on the House of Bethel! You've got to build it on Bethel—The House of Yahweh.

When you understand that Christ just means anointed one when you search your etymology right there, you see it has something to do with contact, and that it's a verb. Then you scroll down and find anoint. To anoint, you have to have contact. So then you scroll down and find: to smear or rub with oil. So Christ means something set apart with the anointing of Yahweh Himself; the oil that has been sanctified. If you want to know how the Greek word is pronounced, just click on the speaker there. That's how you study the Scriptures.

When we look at the phrase: that followed them, from this verse, there is not any etymology of this word. This is an original word, and it is a verb, but it doesn't necessarily mean it came behind them. If you look at how it's translated in one other place—KJV Strong's G190—it is translated as: the rock that reached them. Revelation 18:5 says, For her sins have REACHED unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. It's the same exact word—G190—and they translated it, reached there, and followed ninety-one other places. We also see: to join him as an attendant. The Rock joined him as an attendant. It's joining them to reach a destination.

Brother Vaughn, are you making that up? Hold on; bear with me. If I see that it's translated, reached, and followed, I know those don't go together. But now I'm seeing a word coming together that's telling me that this word was following or joining them until it reached a destination. That's not outside the realm of possibility. So that is how you study the Bible. I got a little sidetracked with that. I do apologize. Now let's get back to the lesson. Let's get focused again.

After Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the Temple, Jeremiah and Teia Tephi are hiding in a cave with the Ark of the Covenant and the Stone of Destiny. Baruch, Jeremiah's secretary or scribe, then came and told Jeremiah that the coast was clear, so Jeremiah took Teia Tephi and the Treasures, and took them first to Mizpah, which was in Egypt. When they got there, they stayed in a palace that was given to Teia Tephi by Pharaoh Hophra. What did he do? They must have showed him the treasure of the Ark of the Covenant, and the Stone of Destiny to convince him of who this girl was, because immediately he adopted her as his own daughter. He gave her this home that you're looking at here, though now in ruins, and the name of that home was Quasr Bint el Jehudi, which means Palace of the Daughter of Judah. It still exists to this very day in Petra. This is a house that was given to this daughter as she was traveling.

Once they got there, they took off and began to sail to the place called Gibraltar. There Teia Tephi is proclaimed Queen. Don't you imagine if you showed up with the Ark of the Covenant and the An Lia Fail Stone, that every Israelite would know you were the queen, and Jeremiah is the prophet? Immediately they crown her queen of the Gadite Israelites who had settled in the Rock of Gibraltar area. When she gets there, she finds many of them worshiping Neptune. Remember, they are Lost Tribes, and have stopped keeping Sabbath and Covenant. She condemned them for their idolatry, and they stayed there five months.

Then they got on a Greek vessel that was sailed with the aid of Simon, the son of Elier the ruler of Gibraltar. Now listen carefully. The ruler of Gibraltar is one of the Lost Tribes of Israel. Teia Tephi is NOT the Lost Tribes. She is not lost; she knows who she is. I need you to please stay with me. She just came from Jerusalem. She's still a Sabbath keeper. She's still a Covenant keeper. They are not. They were LOST. They've lost their identity among the nations. However, when she comes to them, they know that's their bloodline, and she tries to bring them back to the Covenant as a defender of the faith.

Now when she gets there, she meets Elier, who is the king of Gibraltar. We have a European monarch in Elier. He is a member of the Lost Tribes. This is very important because I'm going to bring you to where it all coagulates. Now what does Elier do? He knows who this girl is; he knows who Jeremiah is. What does he do? He guides them across the bay of Algeciras and through the Straits to Breogan in Spain, where he introduces them to Ith Cian, the Israelite ruler who adopted Teia Tephi as his daughter. Why is everyone adopting her? Her father is dead. She cannot even be married without a family to pay the dowry.

When they leave Breogan in Spain, they are now headed to Ireland. Have you noticed that all along this journey, she is meeting the kings—the royal houses—of these places? They are all recognizing her as the queen of Jerusalem, and royal families take care of royal families. They're bringing her in all along her journey, giving her gifts and sustaining her, and bringing her to her destiny which was eventually going to be Ireland.

So now they head for Ireland when they leave Spain. When they get to a place called Mara-Zion. I want you to hear those words MARA-ZION. They meet a man by the name of Elatha. He was the leader of Cornwall in Great Britain. Before they get to Ireland, they get to Cornwall. As they travel, they meet Elatha who also is a Lost Tribe Israelite ruler over Cornwall. He is kin to Ith Cian, who was just the ruler in Gibraltar. Is anybody seeing a picture of the Royal heads of Europe ALL being Lost Tribes?

As they travel, they meet Elatha, who is the kinsman of Ith Cian of Breogan, and bring her to the gate of Gibraltar. What does Elatha do? At Cornwall, Great Britain, he welcomes them. He has their boat repaired for them, and then he sends a message to the High king of Ireland, by the name of Ard ri, and he tells the High king that Teia Tephi, the queen of Jerusalem is coming to Ireland, and to be ready for her. He is now requesting safe passage of this royal treasure. When he does that, the High king sends fifty-two ships to come and get Teia Tephi. This was not just any girl. This was David's daughter.

He sent fifty-two ships to pick up this queen of Jerusalem, and bring her to Ireland. Teia Tephi arrives in Ireland with two handmaidens by the name of Penn Etaire and Binn Etaire Howth. When they got to Ath Cliath, which is Dublin, Ireland, they arrived on the 18th day of June, 583 B.C. When she touched the ground, guess who was there to greet her? Eochaidh, the High king. Remember I told you earlier to remember the name Eochaidh. He comes from the tribe of Zarah. He is the High king of Ireland. Teia Tephi is escorted to a high hill—The Hill of Tara. You can still go there today. Remember, the prophecy of Ezekiel was that he would take a tender twig and plant her on a high hill, or a high mountain. Tara is one of the highest hills in Ireland. She arrived there on the 20th of June, 583 B.C., and was escorted to the house that had already been prepared for her.

When she gets to that house she is highly offended because there was a phallic statue that the priests—the Druids—had erected for their pagan Baal religion. You can still find that symbol in front of the Roman Catholic Church in Rome. Teia Tephi demanded it be removed. Do you know why? She knew who she was. This is David's daughter. This is Pharez. This is the one still in Covenant. She demanded that stone be removed immediately, and it be replaced with the Bethel Stone, the Lia Fail—God's Throne of Israel—to be put in place of that phallic stone. The hill was renamed Inauguration Mound. Do you know why? Because it would be here that every king of Ireland would be crowned for a thousand years on this stone that Teia Tephi brought.

Teia is now a resident of Ireland. Eochaidh was from Zarah, of the Red Hand branch. Look at his flag! That red hand is not just a coincidence. What was wrapped around Zarah's hand at birth? The scarlet thread. Teia Tephi was from the line of David of the Pharez branch of Judah, and guess who gets married? Zarah and Pharez come together under this flag on the Hill of Tara. This is the ORIGINAL flag of Ireland—the flag of the Red Hand. Does anybody know where a red hand came from? It came from Zarah. Their marriage restored the two families of the House of Judah.

They sealed the breach of centuries earlier when Judah's twin sons were born.

The Bible says to raise the banner. The banner sends the message of who you are. When we look at Old Glory, we know the story. We know what the red stripes represent. We know what the stars mean. You can tell a 300 year-old story with one flag. This flag tells their story. The crown which was Teia Tephi, comes and unites with Zarah, the Red Hand, and the union that took place at Tara is symbolized in the Ulster flag, where the Red Hand of Zarah is mounted upon the Star of David under the single Royal Crown, symbolizing the union of the two royal lines that sprang from Judah.

Teia Tephi replaced the pagan stone with this Stone. Tei Tephi had a palace built at Teltown, near Kells, Ireland, where she lived with Eochaidh and had four children named Aedh, Ainge, Aengus, and Cermad. The Lia Fail Stone that Teia Tephi brought with her from Jerusalem stayed in Ireland on the Forrad at Tara for more than a thousand years, and all the Irish kings were crowned upon the Stone up to 500 A.D. It was then loaned to Fergus, the brother of the king of Ireland, who had immigrated to the nation of Scotland, and he wanted to be crowned king of the Irish that were living in Scotland. He had settled there in Scotland, and had become Scottish.

The Stone was never returned to Ireland. It stayed in Scotland and was called the Stone of Destiny; English for Lia Fail. All the kings of Scotland were crowned upon that stone until 1296 A.D., when Edward I of England invaded Scotland. He defeated Scotland, and took the Stone of Scone from the Scone Abbey near Perth, to London where all of the English kings were subsequently crowned in Winchester Abbey upon the Stone of Destiny.

For 1500 years EVERY king of Ireland and Scotland were inaugurated on that Stone. Now you know why Queen Elizabeth was the queen of Scotland and northern Ireland; of Great Britain. That Stone! What's so special about this stone? C'mon! Do you think they do not know the story? When the king invaded Scotland, the first thing he said was, "Get me that Stone!" Who put that in his heart? Where did that come from? Let's continue the story.

All of the Irish, Scottish, and English monarchs after 583 B.C., including Queen Elizabeth II and King Charles III, descended from Eochaidh and Teia Tephi of the line of David from the tribe of Judah, and they rule over the Lost Tribes of Israel. There's the Stone, my friends. The stone when it was moved from Scotland was broken, and it fit in that throne. Teia Tephi prophesied that it would sit in that Throne, until that Throne is given to Christ. It is my belief that Great Britain, Ireland, Scotland, the United States of America, are ALL the land of ISRAEL, and this Throne has been preserved for Yahshua Messiah. What throne are they going to give Him? There is no throne in Jerusalem. Is anybody with me? Yahshua was promised the Throne of David.

Now let me show you something. This was the original flag of Ireland. Ireland's Coat of Arms reflects the biblical heritage. Let's go through them: King David's harp, line of Judah's crowns, Jesus Yahshua's Cross, Zarah's hand, the Eagle of the tribe of Dan, Simon's sword. Really? REALLY?! Does the flag not tell the story like Old Glory does for America? Their Anthems do also. When they have a Coronation, on their walk down the aisle, there are always biblical anthems:

Zadok the Priest, and Jerusalem.

Now as I close, I would like to show you the family line. If you will go up to Judah; Zarah on your left, Pharez on your right, here is where you'll wind up—The Royal House of Zarah went through the Cretan kings, the Trojan kings, the Milesian, the Frawkish, the Scandinavians that went to the House of Wecta, then the kings of Denmark, The House of Greece, and Prince Phillip was a prince of The House of Greece.

Now follow The Royal House of Pharez: David, Solomon, Zedekiah, the King's Daughter, the Kings of Ireland, the Kings of Scotland, Albert and Victoria, the Royal House of Windsor. Both lines can be found in the Royal Family; as wicked as they may be. As messed up as they may be, it's not about them. Do you get it? It's about THE THRONE! It's about PROPHECY being fulfilled, that Yahshua will be glorified! He has kept this Throne.

Now my intentions are to end this series today, but a vital part is missing: AMERICA! So I will get there and pick that up next week and show you this new land that was preserved for The House of Israel.
